

"I really do not know any heresy (which word I use in its proper original sense, i. e., 'opinion') in the Christian Church that has less to base itself on than that of 'immersion,' yet its advocates are using the most reckless statements, which have gained ground among critics and lexicographers—who generally follow each other like a flock of sheep—entirely by the boldness of the assertion."—From "Baptism versus Immersion," by ROBERT YOUNG, LL.D., author of the "Greek and Hebrew Analytical Concordance," "Biblical Notes and Queries," etc.

"The logic of this theory (Immersion) as declared by its friends is this:—Outside of this theory there is no baptism, no Lord's Supper, no Christian ministry, no Christian Church—and, by the same inexorable logic, no Christian man."—JAMES W. DALE, D.D., in "Christic Baptism," p. 21.
