

- Arizona, Territory of, i. 559
 Arkansas, State of, i. 684
 Army, control of the, i. 30, 49
 "Articles of Confederation and Perpetual Union" of 1781, i. 17, 18, 371, 688-694
 Attorney-General, The, i. 81, 85

 "BACK-PAY Grab," The, of 1873, i. 192
 Bagehot, Walter, quoted, i. 280
 Balance of power in the Federal Constitution, i. 219-224, 390; ii. 228, 229
 Bank, United States, i. 285, 366, 370
 Bar, The American: its influence on public opinion, i. 260; on the judiciary, 487; ii. 352; the legal profession undivided in America, 482, 492; no general organization, 486; provision for legal education, 487; conservatism of the Bar, 483; decline in its political influence, 489; and in its social position, 490; its moral influence, 491; reflections on the fusion of the two branches, 492; forensic oratory, 654
 Bill of Declaration of Rights of 1791, i. 25, 357, 704; in State Constitutions, 422-426, 709
 Bishop, J. B., quoted on party organization in New York, ii. 110
 Blackstone, Mr. Justice, quoted, i. 26, 275
 "Bolters," ii. 292, 296
 "Bosses," ii. 76-96, 134-141, 336 sqq., 354 sqq.
 Boston, City of, i. 600; ii. 347, 671
 Bradford, Mr. Gamaliel, on the nominating machinery of Massachusetts, ii. 719-721
 Bribery and corruption, i. 445; ii. 110, 115, 121-133, 203, 457, 500
 Brigandage, ii. 683
 British immigrants, ii. 5
 Brooklyn, City of, Charter, i. 625

 CABINET, The President's, i. 81-91; ii. 124
 Cabinet, The, system of government, i. 272 sqq.
 Caesarism, improbability of, in America, i. 64; ii. 443
 Calhoun, John C., i. 646; ii. 144, 654
 California, State of, Constitution, i. 709-750; ii. 383; character of the State, ii. 372; Kearneyism, 376 sqq.
 Canada, Constitution of, referred to, i. 454, 681; ii. 103, 104; relations of, to the United States, 397
 Capital, influence of a, upon society, ii. 644; want of one in the United States, 644; causes of this, 648; its results, 649
 Capitalists, class of, ii. 261, 600; attack upon, 384
 Carolina, North, State of, i. 23
 "Carpet-baggers" in the South, ii. 277
 Catholics, Roman, and politics, ii. 557, 566
 Caucus, Party, in Congress, i. 201, 202; and the Presidential election, 143
 Chambers, Second, American view of, i. 182; ii. 476
 Chancery Courts, i. 480
 Chinese in America, The, i. 744; ii. 260, 386, 391, 394
 Church and State, separation of, in America, ii. 471, 554 sqq.; reasons for it, 559; legal position of a church, 561; result to religion, 569; to society in general, 664
 Cincinnati, City of, ii. 88
 Circuit Courts, i. 227
 Cities, debts of, i. 504, 607, 608; their relation to townships, 567, 580, 632; their growth, 593; their organization, 594 sqq.; indraught towards them from the country, ii. 711. See Municipal Government
 Citizenship of the United States, i. 406, 707; ii. 67
 Civil Service Reform, i. 616, 658; ii. 103 sqq., 128, 476; the Act of 1883, 697
 Classes in America as influencing opinion, ii. 255; the farmers, 255; shopkeepers, 257; working men, 258; city residuum, 260; capitalists, 261; professional men, 263; literary men, 264; summary, 265; no class struggles, 466
 Clay, Henry, i. 646
 Clergy, The American, and politics, ii. 172, 365, 558, 565; their equality, 554 sqq.; their social standing, 564
 Cleveland, Grover (President), i. 54, 143; ii. 105
 Closure of debate in Congress, i. 130-132
 Colorado, State of, i. 684
 Columbia, Federal District of, i. 552; ii. 147