Special services morning and evening yesterday marked the twenty-seventh anniversary of the founding of Victoria Presbyterian Church. At the morning service, Rev. A. Logan Geggie preached, and the special preacher at the evening service was Rev. Alfred Gandier, D.D., principal of Knox College. It is rather unique that the twenty-seventh anniversary of the High Park Avenue Methodist Church, only a block distant, was celebrated two weeks ago.

while driving in his buggy along Osler avenue last night about 7 o'clock William Mackenzie of 760 West Richmond street, employed by the Cossrave Brewery Company, became the victim of a runaway. His horse became frightened at a locomotive on a nearby siding, and breaking the shafts from the buggy tore off down the street. Mackenzie was thrown out of the vehicle to the pavement, sustaining severe cuts about the face and a number of bruises. Fortunately he was not seriously injured, and after being attended by Dr. McNamara of Davenport was able to go home.

Mrs. Boynton, an aged tady, who lives at the corner of Yonge and Reuben streets, stepped in front of a 7 o'clock northbound Metropolitan car Friday night at the Tyler street crossing and was carried nearly to the waiting room. Dr. Hillary attended her injuries, which consisted of a broken leg near ankle, left leg badly bruised, contusions about the head and face and bruises on the body. She misjudged the distance the car was away from her when she tried to cross the street and was somewhat baffled by the car's searchlight.
