Kitchener Beat All-Stars

At Solomon Benefit Game

Kitchener, Ont., Feb. 4 .- The benefit Archaes it os, coupled with the fact that the Montreal outfit are elected to play off for the championship at the end of the season with the winner of this series, most likely Ottawa, only a small crowd turned out last night. Previous incidents have knocked all the activity out of the betting brigade, and there was practically no betting at all, maybe an odd small wager at even money.

The threat of blue tickets for some of the boys if the Toronto team failed to show something last might, had the desired effect. The Arenas went out and showed a finished article of the winterpastime, and ran in four goals before the small crowd and the Montreal team knew what happened.

The Montreal team came to life in the second period and battled to the last bell, the final score being 6 to 3. The Arenas played clever hockey in goots and earned five of their six tallies. A the first four goals dazed the Canadiens for the first wenty minutes of play. They came back strong after this and put up an argument for the rest of the joint was missing and talonde land Noble had a mixing bee all night and the troube started when Labende jabbed the Toronto player in the stomach. Crawford drew down a major foul for jabbing McDonald in the neck. Noble Brilliant.

Joe Hall was missing and Lalonde played back with Colbeau. The tricky Newsy put up a good brand on the back line, and was dangerous every time he rushed. Noble was the outstanding start the full distance. He scored two pretty goals, and besides watching has well and crawford checked well and did a lot of skaking.

The first period saw the locks for the first defeat of the season in one of his good articles and blocked strongly beside Mummery Meeking got a pretty goal early, and Crawford checked well and did a lot of skaking.

The first period saw the locks for the first of the season till last Friday, when they were sent into second place with the province of the first of the season till last Friday, when they were sent into second place with the province of the care of the first the Montreal outfit are elected to play- game for Otto Solomon of the cup holdoff for the championship at the end of ers, who has been out of the game this

Crawford checked well and did a lot of skasing.

The first period saw the local team open as if they intended to wipe away all thoughts of their not being 3 good and fast outfit. They never forgot their checking and showed perfect combination on the attack.

Meeking got the first goal and it was as smooth as velvet. Randall carried it down and passed over. Meeking work as smooth as velvet. Randall carried it down and passed over. Meeking work the face-off, and went thru the whole works. He bluffed a pass and continued on for the goal.

Noble wiggled in for the next one and fooled the defence nicely. He came back half a minute later for the fourth Toronto, and should be a valuable man on the mound or as utility of the rapid-fire changes as smooth as velvet. Randall carried it down and passed over. Meeking went thru the whole works. He bluffed a pass and continued on for the goal.

Noble wiggled in for the next one and fooled the defence nicely. He came back half a minute later for the fourth Toronto foal, and brought the puck around from behind the net to best Vezina. Canadiens were left out of it altogether in this period.
