

The Session may find it necessary, at an early day, to call upon you to elect one of your number to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Fairbairn.

By last Statement the balance on hand of the Session Fund for the relief of the poor was $15.57 ; since received on the 9th Sept., amount of a collection, $15.00 ; paid the late James McElroy, per Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, on the 10th Sept., $4.57, on the 13th, $13, and on the 31st Oct., $1.00, leaving a balance on hand of $12.22.

And now brethren, with a brighter future before us than we have had for years, let us press forward more earnestly to do the work to which we are called : let us work while it is day, "for the night cometh in which no man can work."

F. W. FARRIES, Moderator.

JOHN DURIE, Session Clerk.

