Dr. Malloch Fined $5, But Will Appeal the Decision.

HAMILTON, April 28.—(Special.)—A savage assault was made upon Oliver Curliss by thuse a few nights ago. When found on Napler-street by a friend he was in a bad condition, and it was some hours before he could give an account of what had happened to him. Curliss tost all his money.

The very ignest thing in mergers is the alleged ansaltmention by Tocal sandmen. The price of sand has already been ready of the city council in passing a bylaw that made citizens limble to a fine when they allowed their muzzled dogs to run unleashed on the streets. The defence of Dr. Malloch was that, proper control. The magistrate fined the doctor $5. The decision will be appealed.

The city engineer went to the beach to-day to investigate the report of the caretaker at the pump house that the muddy water was corroding the intake pipe and causing a dangerous shortage in the city's supply.

Lieut-Col. Mewburn announced to the members of the Royal 13th Regiment to-night that arrangements had been made by which the regiment will go to London on May 24 for the day. During the morning they will take part in tactical exercises and the men will be dismissed about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The regiment will rethe afternoon. The regiment will re-turn to the city by special train, leav-ing London about 10 o'clock. Gartrude Slack, Brant-street, was arrested to-night on the charge of threatening Louis Bradt. The members of the four local courcils of the C.O.O.F. presented Dr. Bell with a reclining chair and footstool to-in the afternoon.

The prizes were pretty much divided, two firsts going to Hon. Adam Beck in the jumping class, while Crow & Murray got two with that good stepper, Happy Maid, who will make a strong bid for the championship to-night, and Lownsborough Madge. The Ennisclare Farm kept up their winning gait by scoring two wins in amateur pairs and in unicorns. There were several minor accidents, one in the afternoon, when one of Aemilius Jarvis' horses, with Mr. Proctor up, bolted at the gate taking post and everything with him, while post and everything with him, while in the evening Frills, belonging to Ed.
