St. John Officers Home From War

Major Percy McAvity, Capt. D. B. Pidgeon and Capt. C. F. Sanford Arrive in City Today

No warmer welcome could be given than that extended on all sides to Major Percy D. McAvity of "The Fighting 20th," who arrived home this morning after landing at Halifax...

When the 28th left St. John he held the rank of lieutenant but his ability and soldierly qualities soon won him promotion until he had reached the rank of company commander of his unit...

After thirteen months of service in France Captain David B. Pidgeon arrived home this morning from Halifax where he disembarked yesterday from an ocean liner...

To a Times reporter Captain Pidgeon said he had been in poor health for some time and felt that the trip would do him good. He said Lieut.-Col. Massie was getting along nicely and, although he was working hard, was looking well...

On October 8 Captain Pidgeon said he left the Somme district, having taken ill. He was sent to Abbeville where he entered a French hospital and later was transferred to The Daughters of the Empire Hospital in Hyde Park...

Several private soldiers who arrived at Halifax on the same steamer are expected home soon.
