AN ALL N. B. MENU

The menu seemed to be designed to impress upon the visiting newspapermen from the Motherland that the Province of New Brunswick quite alone and of its own resources can supply as appetizing a bill of fare as the whole world combined. It was as follows:

New Brunswick Clam Bouillon

New Brunswick Celery

New Brunswick Rapeseeds

New Brunswick (Saint John Harbor) Salmon

(Admiral Beatty) Roast

New Brunswick Baby Lobsters

New Brunswick Baby Lamb

New Brunswick New Potatoes

New Brunswick Cauliflower

New Brunswick Native Peas

New Brunswick Sardine Salad

New Brunswick Strawberry Preserves

New Brunswick Blueberries

New Brunswick Apples

Dessert

THE CLAM BOUILLON

This is the product of the factory of Shaw & Ellis, Pocolong, Charlotte county, 35 miles west of Saint John, and located on the Bay of Fundy. Their output, which is exclusively clams, is sold in Canada and the United States.

THE LOBSTERS

These were caught on Northumberland Strait, the body of water separating the province of Prince Edward Island from New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. On the coast of these three Maritime Provinces one-third of the world's lobster catch of the world is annually made. The value of this catch, which is sold all over the world, both in the raw state, as served at this dinner, and also in cans, is estimated at $1,000,000.

THE SARDINES

These are the products of the factory of Connors Bros., located at Black's Harbor, 50 miles west of Saint John. This factory is the largest sardine canning plant in the British Empire, and the largest of its kind in the world. Its output is sold in all parts of the world and aggregates 20,000,000 tins per year.

THE SALMON

These are caught within sight of the Admiralty Hotel and are world famous as "Saint John Harbor Salmon," being so listed on the menus of many of the largest and most famous hotels and restaurants of America. The commercial fish salmon industry of New Brunswick last year yielded $800,000. New Brunswick rivers, such as the Restigouche, Tobique and the Miramichi, provide the finest salmon fishing for the sportsman of any rivers in the world. These fish are frequently caught weighing 40 pounds. The total average value of the fisheries of New Brunswick is $6,000,000.

THE LAMB

New Brunswick spring lamb comes from the wonderful pastures of this province, where droughts are unknown, where a spring or a brook is always to be found and where climatic conditions are ideal.

NOTICES OF BIRTHS, MARRIAGES AND DEATHS, 50 CENTS.

Father Cloran Furnishes Large Choir To Sing At Exhibition

PERSONAL NOTES OF BAPTIST INTEREST

Rev. Dr. Bennett's Tribute to Hospitality Shown on Visit to Quebec.

The following items are from the Maritime Baptist—Rev. G. S. Weaver, pastor of the Anglican Baptist church, has been in for some time at St. Martin's Hospital in that town.

THE BLUEBERRIES.

Even the so-called barren lands of New Brunswick produce a delicacy, the gathering and exporting of which has grown into an important industry. The blueberries of this province are the product of these barren lands. They are exported, both in their natural state and in cans, and yield to the pickers and canners many thousands of dollars annually.

THE STRAWBERRIES

One of New Brunswick's important crops. Handled under modern conditions these strawberries are forwarded in cooled refrigerated cars to the large centres of Canada and the United States, where their noted flavor has earned for them growing markets. New Brunswick produces each year over 2,000 tons of this luscious fruit.

THE ICE CREAM

Delighting is one of the most promising of New Brunswick's industries, and ice cream an important product of her creameries. The value of the creamery butter and cheese manufactured in the province was $750,000, but this is also together apart from home dairy products, which add very considerably to the above figures. Standardization of dairy products for export would place New Brunswick in a splendid position to compete in the British markets. The advantages enjoyed here in transportation charges on overseas shipments make possible a great development in the dairy industry.

THE APPLES

Were grown in the Saint John River Valley where New Brunswick's widely celebrated Macdonald's Apples are among the many varieties produced. To cut a New Brunswick Macdonald's Apple is to find it is as good as the whole world combined. It is as follows:

SOME ENJOY GOLF

This afternoon the party were left to their own devices, members of the Board of Trade being on hand to act as guides to whatever part of the city or suburbs they might wish to visit. Several of the party had heard of this to have a game of golf at the Riverside Golf and Country Club. Tomorrow morning they leave on the steamer Empress for Digby and will spend three days in Nova Scotia. Tomorrow will be visited first and from there they will motor through the Annapolis Valley and to Halifax.

ARE DELIGHTED

F. G. R. Peterson, of the London Times, said this was the first time he had visited the Maritime Provinces and he had been delighted with what he had seen in New Brunswick. The members of the party had as little time as they were surprised to see the splendid farms which we had here. It had been a revelation to them and would be so to any person not acquainted with the province. They would certainly be in a position to correct some of the wrong impressions which prevailed in the Old Country about this province.

ON WAY TO CAPITAL

Hon. P. J. Veniot, Premier of New Brunswick, and Hon. Burton Hill, Minister of Public Works in the Provincial Government, were in the city yesterday. They were on their way to Fredericton to attend a meeting of the Government today.

WEST END CHILDREN THOUGHT POISONED

Believed Little Ones Picked up Poison Placed For Cats.

Two children, Stanley McLeod and Wesley Griffith, living in Guilford street, were taken ill yesterday and it was said showed symptoms of poisoning. People in that locality report that at least four cats have been poisoned since Friday, and it is thought that the youngsters in some way picked up something poisonous left lying around for the cats and dogs. They were treated by a doctor although their case was not serious. People are indignant over the affair and the matter was reported to the police. Sergeant O'Neill made an investigation but was unable to find any poisonous substance in the street.
