Out For Water; Landed In The Police Station

A new version of how a man from the North End found himself in the Police Court, charged with drunkenness, came to light this morning. When asked what he was doing out between eleven and twelve o'clock last night, he said: "I went out to get a drink of water."

"You went out of your own house to get a drink of water," interjected the magistrate, "but I suppose you met that nice, kind fellow who gave you a drink of rum instead. Portland seems to be full of them. That's a new one. 'A drink of water.' Take him to the guard room, Sergeant."

Another man, for drunkenness, was fined the usual amount and allowed to go back to his work.

Grant Injunction Against Sale Of Neve Property

Matter Up in Circuit Court Today, But Defendant Still Absent—Case Over Until June 22. In the circuit court this morning the matter of F. B. McCurdy C. vs. Dr. F. H. Neve was heard. Argument of counsel occupying most of the session. An injunction was granted by Chief Justice McKown against the sale or disposition otherwise of the property in Dorchester St. lately occupied by the defendant and standing registered in the name of his wife. The contention of the plaintiff company is that the property was purchased with funds supplied by the defendant and placed in the name of his wife. The question of consideration will be heard further. The defendant physician was not in court this morning. He has not returned since the visit of Sheriff Wilson to his home some days ago with a capias for his arrest. He took his automobile with him and is said to be now in the United States. The claim in this case is for about $33,000 alleged to be due for transactions in stocks. J. F. H. Teed appears for the plaintiff and B. L. Gerow for the defendant. The case will be heard again on June 22nd.

Work Situation In N. S. Improves

Halifax, N. S., June 8.—In the monthly report issued by the Employment Service of Canada of its activities in Nova Scotia during May, it is shown that there is a great decrease in unemployment compared with the same period a year ago.
