In connection with the announcement that Premier Fleming would be one of the speakers at the annual banquet of St. George's Society, it has since been pointed out that Mr. Fleming's acceptance of an invitation to speak was received more than three weeks ago. Owing to the failure of his health and other reasons, it is believed that he will not be able to fill the engagement.

A DELIGHTFUL TREAT.

The young ladies of St. Monica's Guild yesterday afternoon provided a delightful Easter treat to some sixty children who have been attending the sewing classes and joining in the other useful pursuits engaged in under the guidance of the energetic guild workers. Under direction of the president, Miss Collier, and a corps of capable assistants, a very entertaining programme of games and music was enjoyed and the dainty refreshments provided also, no doubt, added greatly to the little ones' pleasure. It was a very happy time.

APRIL WEDDINGS.

At the residence of the officiating clergyman a pretty wedding took place last evening when Mrs. Jennie M. Trainer was married to Minard Miles Smith, both of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. D. Wetmore in the presence of relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will live in the Marsh road.

WAS GIVEN IN CHARGE.

The wild cries of a foreign junk dealer in North street about noon today, saying that he had been robbed and assaulted, and calling loudly for the police attracted much attention from many people passing to their homes to dinner. He accused Thomas Connell of having taken some of his "property," and having struck him in the face, but these accusations Connell denied. The junk dealer's face was cut. There came nearly being a little encounter over the exchange of some statements from the marks concerning themselves and their ancestors, but the arrival of Sergeant Joseph Scott put an end to this, and at the request of the police he placed Connell under arrest.

Alfred Drake is planning to build a comfortable residence for his own use on a large lot which he already owns, and several other buildings are in contemplation.

Tea and Sale Opened Last Evening in Church of Good Shepherd Hall

Last evening a tea and sale was opened in the hall by the Y. W. A. of the Church of the Good Shepherd and the affair was a great success in every way. The hall, which has just been renovated and fitted with electric lights, etc., presented a pretty scene in its trimmings of red, white and blue. One long booth which was subdivided into various departments was built along one side. The other was utilized for general purposes. The following were in charge—

Merchandise and fancy work booths: Mrs. Longard, Mrs. Duff, Mrs. Chas. Hill, Mrs. William Gorie, Miss Bell Kingston, Mrs. Harry Hammond, Miss Gladys Godfrey.

Candy and fruit—Miss Lena Miller, Miss Oge McGuire.

Tea table—Mrs. Russell, The Misses Keating, Miss Kit Humphrey, Miss Stella Smith.

Fish pond—Mr. Duffield.

Refreshments—Frank Miller.

Tea was served at dainty tables on the new large platform recently constructed. During the evening a musical and literary programme was carried out, including vocal selections by Chas. Bell and Mrs. Stymest, reading by Miss Sime, step dance by Chas. Humphrey and solo by Miss Alice Duff. Richard Kingston won the door prize, a five pound chest of tea. The proceeds of this very successful function will go toward the purchase of a new church organ.

THE DIAMOND RING THAT WAS MISSING AND FOUND

Referring to the article in last evening's Times concerning the finding of Mrs. Stanbury's diamond ring her legal counsel, D. Mullin, K. C., said this morning that although the client had no doubt where she placed the ring because she had a distinct recollection of placing it in the cabinet in the kitchen, yet thorough search of the whole house had been made the morning after the ring was missed. Among other places searched that morning was the very bureau drawer in which the ring was afterwards found. Mrs. Stanbury herself took out this drawer and emptied out the contents.

So thorough was the search, he said, that the paper which covered the bottom of this drawer was removed by Mrs. Stanbury. The ring was certainly not there then. Strange to say some weeks afterwards it was discovered by Mrs. Stanbury when she was casually looking for something in the drawer. It was found concealed in the back part of the drawer under the paper.

NEW ORGAN FOR SAINT DAVID'S

Project is Started But Some Time Must Elope Before Realization

The music committee of St. David's church is considering a proposal to secure a new organ for the church. While the present instrument is not an old one, it has not been found adequate for the needs of the church and there is a strong sentiment among the members of the congregation in favor of securing a new organ.

The type of instrument suggested is of the most modern kind, capable of meeting all the demands which might be made upon it. The organ would be electrically controlled as well as operated and it has been suggested that the new instrument might be placed in the western end of the church instead of at the side. If this is done the pulpit may be placed in front of the organ with the choir in front of the minister and the organ key boards in front of the choir with the organist facing the choir. With this arrangement the choir would be nearer the congregation and it is believed that it would be of more aid to congregational singing.

Before any action can be taken the committee must submit their recommendations to the trustee board and then to a meeting of the congregation for confirmation, and if their plans are approved it will probably be a year longer before the new organ could be built and installed. In the meantime a large amount has been subscribed voluntarily towards the cost of the instrument.

G. OF E. INSTITUTE LADIES HOLDING TEA AND SALE

What promised to be a very successful tea and sale was opened this afternoon in the school rooms of St. John's (Stone) church under the auspices of the Ladies' Association of the Church of England Institute. The school room was nicely decorated. Mrs. James H. McAvilly was in charge, and assisting her were a large number of members of the association from the Anglican churches of the city.

The refreshment table was in charge of Mrs. Alfred Morrissey with Mrs. George P. Smith and Mrs. W. D. Forster pouring, and Misses Gladys Hearn, Marion Friel, Ailene Starr, Ethel Jarvis, May Cornwall, Bertie Woods, Madeline de Soyres, Bertie and Ayla Armstrong, Miss Sturdee and Miss Gandy, assisting. The fancy work table was presided over by Mrs. Fred B. Schofield assisted by Miss Clara Schofield and Miss Lilian Hearn, while Miss Pyralis Kenne had charge of the candy table, assisted by Misses Marion Magee, K. Schofield, and Kathleen Sturdee.

CANADA MAY WITHDRAW FROM FISHERIES AGREEMENT

Ottawa, April 16.—Canada is likely to withdraw from the International Fisheries Agreement. After waiting five years for the United States government to enact necessary legislation ratifying the agreement, which has been done, the matter is now before congress, and it had been thought that it would go through this session, but the latest advice are that the chances of its going so are small. The opposition of fishing interests to certain parts of the agreement are proving powerful and such an action is likely to defeat the measure or rather to prevent its being ratified. If nothing is done, Canada will at once withdraw from the treaty.
