

PATROL LEADERS' COUNCIL IN VIEW

Scout Committee to Take up Matter Tonight—St. Phillip's Troop Visited.

Tonight a committee will meet at Boy Scout headquarters to decide upon the feasibility of forming a patrol leaders' council. The members of the committee are Dr. G. B. Peat, Stanley Oliver, L. L. Johnson, C. E. Upham and C. G. Hoyt.

St. Phillip's troop of Boy Scouts was visited last night by District Secretary L. L. Johnson and L. F. Finkbeiner, assistant scoutmaster of Victoria street troop. A scout meeting was conducted and games and songs were indulged in. Prof. McCallum provided organ accompaniment for the singing. The troop is composed of very enthusiastic scouts who eagerly joined in plans for a hike which Mr. Johnson undertook to arrange within the next fortnight.

HOSPITAL AID WORK OF MONTH REVIEWED

Financial Situation Causes Discontinuation of Ice Cream Gift For Patients.

At the monthly meeting of the Women's Hospital Aid, held yesterday afternoon in the Board of Trade room, with the president, Mrs. J. Boyle Travers, in the chair, excellent reports of the last month's work were heard. It was decided to make 100 personal property bags for the patients at the General Public Hospital.

As a view of the financial situation, it was decided to discontinue the gift of ice cream for the patients in the General Hospital each week, which has been made during the last three years. The ice cream was being used as a treat for the patients, it was said.

The treasurer reported a balance of $645.33 in the general fund and $791.20 in the emergency fund. In connection with tag day thanks were extended to all who assisted, including the Boy Scouts, E. A. Schofield, T. H. Carter, Ralph Robertson, Mrs. L. M. Curran and Mrs. George McCuskey.

Mrs. Belle Howe, in giving her report as social service worker, referred to one case which was something of a problem, and it was suggested the interest of St. George's Society might be secured. Mrs. T. H. Carter had presented nice bags for the weekly visitors at the

They "Shine" But Not In Movies

Oshie and Tompkins Doster left their home in Arkansas to break into the movies. But they found the "extra" line was a hard road to follow so they went into the shoe-shine business in Hollywood. Among their clients are many movie stars. Robert Edison, actor, is shown having his shoes polished.

General Public Hospital and hearty thanks were extended to her.

Books for the patients' library were gratefully acknowledged and it was reported another book had been sold, leaving only 76 to be disposed of. Denominational reports were as follows: Anglicans, 23 members in St. Luke's; Catholics, two members, three follow-up cases; Baptists, 41 members in Central Baptist; Hebrews, one follow-up case.

Mrs. C. S. Christie and Miss Ella McGaffigan were appointed to buy the material for comfort bags, and those who undertook to make up 25 each
