

POETRY

CASA'S DIRGE.

BY W. D. MOIR, ESQ., (DELTA) (From the Literary Gazette.)

VAINLY for us the sunbeams shine; Dimm'd is our joyous hearth;

Ocean may rave with billows curl'd And moons may wax and wane,

Shall not claim thee again! Closed are the eyes, which bade rejoice

Yes, thou art gone! our hearth's delight,

Our boy so fond and dear, No more our smiles to glad our sight,

Now winter with its snow departs, The green leaves clothes the tree,

Dear to our souls is every spot, Where thy small feet have trod;

And smit is the sod; The wild bee with its buglet fine,

Only in dreams thou comest now, From heaven's immortal shore,

Where thy fond endearing ways, That tenderest feeling prove;

Oh heavenly child of mortal birth! Our thoughts of thee arise,

Thou leanest where the fadeless wands Of amaranth bend o'er;

There chance and change are not; the soul Quaffs bliss as from a sea,

There gush for aye fresh fountains of joy, New rapture to impart;

A little while—a little while— Ah! long it cannot be!

Oh! that we were where now thou art, Not lost, but gone before!

A BOY IN A BAND-BOX.—A man of business advertised in a Philadelphia paper "A Boy Wanted."

DRUNKENNESS.—Drunkenness turns a man out of himself, and leaves a best in his room.

Perhaps there is not any thing which tends more to sap the moral principles of a family than the want of concert between the parents.

Reason is called the eye of the mind, and, should be equal in temperature with the eye, which neither perspires with heat, nor freezes with cold.

"Men," says a celebrated author, "will wrangle for religion, write for it, fight for it, die for it!

Not less than 42dols.25, as is seen by the schedule of contingent expenses, was expended to supply the last session of Congress with Snuff.

The way there are pickling down and barrelling up people in New York, is a caution.

Lord Mansfield being willing to save a man who stole a watch, desired the jury to value it at tenpence;

A Churchwarden. A medical gentleman was lately called in to attend the dying functionary, who was not conversant with expressions out of the vulgar tongue.

Experiments have been tried in mixing pitch with coal for steam navigation, and it is said to have answered more effectually.

In the neighborhood of Grosvenor-square reside four surgeons, all enjoying excellent practice, whose names are Churchyard, Slaughter, Blood, and Death.

In some of the prisons of American warm wormwood tea is given copiously to confirm drunkards, to counteract the effect of a too-sudden disuse of spirits,

A lady applied, a few days since, for a seat at one of our chapels, and being informed that the pews were all filled,

Young girls, like kittens, are pretty play-things; but as they grow up they look for their claws.
