

ards of action and a high sense of personal responsibility and honor.

In general, quiet and orderly conduct, a polite and courteous demeanor, a conscientious discharge of all duties, and prompt and respectful compliance with the personal requirements of the teachers, as well as with the prescribed regulations of the School, are expected from all students.

Students will not be allowed to remain in the College after it becomes evident that they fail to enter into the spirit of the College. It is believed that the excellence of the School can be maintained in no other way.

RELIGIOUS PRIVILEGES.

Free sittings are provided for the College at Bloor St Baptist Church, and the resident students are required to attend on the Sabbath, but provision is made for students of other denominations to attend once a Sunday, accompanied by a teacher, the church which their parents or guardians may prefer. Such preference should be communicated to the Principal in writing when pupils enter the College. No change in the place of worship of any pupil will be allowed without the written consent of the parents or guardians.

As will be seen from the curriculum, special provision is made for Bible study in accordance with the general aim of the institution as a Christian school of learning. In addition to this, all resident students are required to attend, on Sunday mornings, a Bible class conducted by the Principal. A weekly prayer meeting is held on Tuesday evening, led in turn by the teachers and students. There is also a Missionary Society, which meets once a month for the study of home and foreign mission news, and for regular and systematic contribution to the work.

LIBRARY AND READING ROOM.

Large and pleasant rooms in the main College building are devoted to the Library and Reading Room. A goodly number of books, adapted to the wants of the College, have already been secured. The number will be increased as the demands of the College may require. The purpose is not to secure a large
