MOTOR CAR PLUNGES OVER BANK INTO LAKE

Disaster at a Level Crossing Ends in a
Dive of Sixty Feet.

GENEVA, Sept. 28.—An extraordinary motor car disaster occurred at the eastern end of the Lake of Geneva last night.

The car belonged to M. Claire, a wealthy Frenchman, who, with his chauffeur, was driving four friends to Montreux by the road which runs along between the south of the lake and the railway.

At Bouvet the road crosses the railway, recrossing again just above the town. Of this fact the chauffeur was evidently unaware. At any rate the car, a large and powerful one, and proceeding at great speed in the darkness, after having safely negotiated the first crossing, dashed headlong into the closed gates of the second crossing.

The impact was terrific. The gates gave way like paper, and the car crashed through, however, a piece of the flying debris struck the chauffeur and stunned him, causing him to entirely lose his control over the car.

Thus, with no hand on the steering wheel, and with no skidding of the car, the car continued its career across country straight for the lake.

The few hundred yards which separate the railway from the water were covered in a minute or two, and the next moment it had jumped the sixty foot bank into the water.

Fortunately, there were several spectators of the disaster, and they promptly rendered help, or all the occupants of the car must have been drowned. As it was when they were brought to land it was found that two of them were seriously injured, but so severely that they are not expected to recover. The car is still in the lake, many feet under water.

PARIS INDIGNANT AT MURDERER'S REPRIEVE

Meetings Held All Over City in Protest
Against the President's Decision.

PARIS, Sept. 28.—The reprieve of Solleiland, the brutal murderer of the little girl, Marthe Ebelding, has caused a storm of indignation throughout Paris.

The Commission of Pardon, by three votes to one, advised the commutation of the death sentence to one of hard labor for life; the minister of justice signified his agreement and President Fallieres made the order.

A storm of indignation swept over Paris when it became known that a crime was not to be executed. Until the last moment it was believed that President Fallieres would understand how strongly the public felt in the matter.

Petitions from different classes of society—particularly from numbers of mothers of the poorer class—continued to be sent in to the president to the last, begging him to have no mercy on Solleiland, and now that it is certain that the man will not be guillotined the entire neighborhood in which he and his little victim lived and several other of the poorer neighborhoods are in a regular ferment.

WOMAN SHOT MAN, THEN PUT BULLET IN HER OWN BRAIN
MONTREAL, Sept. 27.—Celine LaPointe, a young French Canadian dressmaker, entered the billiard parlor on St. Catherine street east, this afternoon and after a few words conversation with Ludwig Houe, the manager, drew a revolver and shot him through the head. She then turned the weapon upon herself, the bullet entering her head. Both were removed to the hospital, where the bullet was easily extracted from Houe's head. The woman is not expected to live. Houe professes to know no reason for the act, and says the woman must have been temporarily deranged.
