British Parliament to the King - Emperor William's Instructions-Funeral on

LONDON, Aug. 7.-King Edward,

Queen Alexandra, Princess Victoria and Prince Nicholas of Greece, who is the guest of their majesties, will start for Hamburg Friday to attend the funeral services of Empress Frederick to be held in the presence of the family next Sunday.

LONDON, Aug. 7.-A resolution providing for an address of condolence with King Edward and sympathy with Emperor William at the death of the utmost to promote mutual comprehension and sympathy between two great nations, upon whom so much of the future of civilization depends.

BERLIN, August 7.—It has been definitely decided that the funeral of the Dowager Empress Frederick will take place Tuesday next, August 13. The remains will be deposited in the Freidens Kirche mausoleum, near Potsdam. Emperor William has issued a decree ordering the army to go into mourning for six weeks and gave minute details as to how the mourning emblems tary music for eight days. Court circles have been notified as to how the ladies and gentlemen of the court must dress till November 5. The ladies are to wear full mourning until August 26, and minor mourning until November 5. Some of the papers take exception to the mourning orders. One paper, referring to the prohibition of public entertainments and musical and the entertainments and musical and the-atrical performances until after the funeral, says it believes this will hind-er, to a certain degree, the purpose for which it was destined. It contrasts which it was destined. It contrasts with this order, Emperor Frederick's order upon the death of Emperor William I, in which he declined to make any mourning regulations, leaving the people to show their sympathy in their

The Hamburger Nachrichten (Prince Bismarck's old organ), draws upon its editor's reminescenses by saying Prince Bismarck repeatedly asserted in private conversation that it was quite untrue that the Empress Prederick caused him great obstacles during Emperor Frederick's reign, adding that on the contrary, there was no time in his entire career in which he was freer from friction than during was freer from friction than during the "Ninety-nine days." The Berliner Neustenachrichten, an influential conservative organ, which also cherished Bismarckian traditions, has repeatedly denied that Empress which caused Prince Bismarck's downfall, saving:-"She was much too shrewd a woman to do so."

CRONBERG, Aug. 8.-The funeral afternoon was simple but highly impressive. It was performed at the request of the late Dowager Empress quest of the late Dowager Employed by the Bishop of Ripon, her own chaplain, assisted by the Rev. The Teignmouth Shore, Canon of Worces-

The coffin stood in the death cha ber covered with a long black pall and strewn with white roses. At the foot, with bowed head and slightly in advance of the other mourners, stood Emperor William in the uniform of the Duke of Cambridge, the Grand Duke of Hesse and a few court officials.

The service was conducted entirely without music. It consisted of a portion of the burial service of the Church | Additional Rumors of Lord Kitchener's of England, the ninetieth psalm, the lesson from the first Epistle to the Corinthians and the benedicton. The ongregation rendered the responses. Immediately after its conclusion Emperor William and the Empress drove back to Hamburg A few people standing near the Friedrichshof saluted respectfully on their majesties' arrival and departure. The castle still presents the appearance of a state of siege. Hussars are bivouacked in the woods, cavalry pickets and mounted police patrol the roads, and a large force of detectives is in evidence about the castle, as well as in the town, scrutinizing all comers.

Count VonWaldersee will arrive here Saturday to report personally to the Emperor, and it is expected that he will attend the service on Sunday.

King Edward Personally Thanked Sir Percy Grouard

MONTREAL, Aug. 6.-Advices from London bring news of distinguished honors paid to Canadians by King Edward and Queen Alexandra during form bass season in Canada and the the last week of July. On the 25th ultimo His Majesty personally con-ferred his knighthood (K. C. M. G.) upon Major Percy Girouard, who has done such good service with the mili-tary railways in South Africa. The King was good enough, so a private letter says, to take advantage of the occasion to personally thank Mr. Girouard for his success. The next day Queen Alexandra reeived a deputation, which presented her with an address from the women of Canada. The deputation consisted of the Countess of Aberdeen, Lord Strathcona, Miss Teresa F. Wilson, secretary of the National Council of Women of Canada, Toronto; Mrs. J. B. Walker disposed of quite a lot of his bogus paper here.

C. Pope, chairman of the Brother hood of Locomotive Engineers, and A. Shaw, chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen C. P. R., arrived here today in connection with the trackmen's strike. On behalf of the Knights of Pythias I thank the many friends for their generous donations of lowers. I also thank the ladies who gave such valuable assistance in arranging the flowers and trimming the benouthers. I thank the president and superintendent of Pernhill and those under them, also those in charge of the burial places, for privileges granted and courtesies shown. You came to the city of dreamless sleep to discharge a duty of love. In doing so you have exemplified the teachings of Pythianism. Love in spires the doing ut svrry noble deed. It leads you to extend the hand of friendship not entry to the friends at home, but to the strangers within your gates. It secures for the visiting Knight, unknown to you except by the ties that bind, all the care and attention he requires. It sends you to the bedeide of the sick and the grave of the dead. It leads you to comfort and console those in homes darkened by the cloud of aerrow.

All who so over the great highway of life, from the King on his throne to the humblest subject in his realm; all, from the rich in their palaces to the poorest in their hovels, are in need of and ure benefitted by love and sympathy. and put beautiful flowers upon them? It is love.

It may be true that some who care well for the graves of their departed friends failed to give them that love and sympathy they so much needed and wished for before the cold hand of Death was laid upon them. No doubt some, as they stand by the green mounds, express in accents low their regret for not having hem sinder to those who sleep beneath, but the opportunity is passed, and no cars or beautifying of the graves can atone for the lack of love and sympathy while they lived. Beautify the graves as much as you wish, but do not neglect to bestow your love and sympathy, your care and attention, while those who need it are A Business Change — Sizeley Village en fete in Honor of the Marriage of a Very Popular Young Coupie.
