Emperor is Overwhelmed With Grief---Little Hope of Russia Recovering from Disastrous Blow Dealt by Japanese Fleet---The Personal Fate of Rojestvensky is Unknown-The End is Not Far Off.

Latest advices confirm the magnitude of the disaster suffered by the Russian fleet, and point to the fact that Russia's hopes, so far as this war is concerned, now lie in whatever may be accomplished by the oft-beaten army in Manchuria.

An official report received from Tokio by the Japanese legation at Washington Monday evening says that the Russian losses definitely known include two battleships, a coast deships, one destroyer and one special service ship captured, while over 3,000 Rear Admiral Nebogatoff. The Japnese, it would seem, are still pursuing the Russians, and it may be some time before the final result is known. There is nothing to clearly indicate the extent of the Japanese losses, and it is suggested from one source that the Tokio government is waiting to hear from Admiral Rojestvensky by way of Vladivostok before announcing to what extent its fleet has suffered. The news of the disaster has caused deep depression in official Russia, though it is not yet known generally among the Russian people. Rojestvensky's defeat has given rise to renewed talk of peace. It is pointed out by the Associated Press' .St. Petersburg correspondent that Russia in this crisis will turn to France through its foreign minister. M. Delcasse, while from Washington comes information that President Roosevelt,

PARIS, May 29.—The magnitude of the Russian naval disaster has fairly stunned French public opinion, which had hoped that late advices would show that Japan had also suffered some share of the losses. ST. PETERSBURG, May 30, 1.55 a. -After waiting vainly all day and evening for direct news from the scattered remnants of Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's destroyed and beaten fleet, the Russian admiralty at midnight no longer attempted to hold out against the overwhelming evidence pouring in from all directions that the fleet on which all their hopes were centered had suffered a greater disaster than the combined French and Span-trated by the news, and, according to reports, broke down and wept. The effect of the disaster will be a terrible blow to the government. The his flag from the Kniaz Souvaroff to futility of trying to stagger on land is one of the battleships subsequently everywhere recognized, and the cry for sunk, and that he was wounded and "peace at any price" is sure to be nicked up by a torredo hoat raised. This time, it is believed, the government cannot resist such a cry.

Indeed the radical liberals are openly rejoicing in this hour of their country's humiliation. They declare that the disaster means peace and a constitution and that the deaths of thousands of their fellow countrymen and the loss of over a hundred million dollars' worth of warships is not too big a price to pay.

The friends of peace in the government are already reproaching the war party with forcing the issue between Togo and Rojestvensky. When the fleet appeared in the Straits of Mal- Governor General Trepoff has taken acca they tried vainly to persuade the emperor that the time was opportune for the opening of peace negotiations, but the war party is convinced that his majesty and Rojestvensky, for the honor of the navy, insisted that the fleet should be given a chance to retrieve the disasters suffered on land. Diplomatists entertain no doubt that the belliigerent faction will continue to urge that the war be fought to the bitter end, but the friends of Rusisa abroad, and especially France, are now bringing overwhelming arguments to bear in favor of peace.

The Associated Press has excellent reason to believe that the Russian government in this crisis will turn to M. Delcasse, the French foreign minister, in whose ability and loyalty as Russia's friend the emperor and his ministers have implicit Some time ago it appeared like y that President Roosevelt would play a big role in the peace negotiations, but now his share is apt to be determined by place the negotiations in President

A large portion of the officers and sailors of the fleet were residents of Broke Record For Ocean St. Petersburg, and evidences of expectant grief are seen on every hand. Wives and families are beneging the admiralty, and are visiting the churches to pray for the escape of their loved ones.

Many of the people of St. Petersburg refuse absolutely to credit the new from Tokio, and are clutching at the belief that perhaps it is not official. The government undoubtedly fears the effect of the news of the disaster upon the country, as evidence of which
