

NEW YEAR RALLIES AGAIN PROMPTLY SUCCESSFUL

Gatherings in Centenary and St. David's Churches were Largely Attended -- Interesting Services -- Greetings Sent from Coast to Coast.

In spite of bad weather the New Year rallies of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational Sunday schools were well attended and proved a success in every way. Since the inauguration of the rallies here as a means of providing the young people with an opportunity of honoring the advent of the New Year in a way calculated to give it a spiritual significance to them, the programme for the occasion has worked out with increasing care, and yesterday the features of the programme at the Methodist rally, held in the Centenary church, and the Presbyterian and Congregational rallies at St. David's church were of a nature to make a strong impression upon the minds and hearts of the scholars.

The Methodist Rally. At the Methodist rally proceedings were opened by singing Onward Christian Soldiers, and several other hymns. Rev. H. Price read the Scripture lesson, and Rev. W. W. Brewer offered prayer. After another hymn the ceremony of saluting the flag was performed. At a signal several boys advanced to the front of the platform and unfurled the Union Jack, whereupon all present lifted a hand in a military salute, and repeated in unison: "I promise to be loyal and true to my flag and to the Empire for which it stands."

And then they sang My Own Canadian Home. This was followed by an address delivered by Rev. J. L. Dawson, pastor of Centenary, which was of an interesting and appropriate character, and was listened to with great attention. The next speaker was Commissioner H. B. Stoddard, who conveyed the greetings of the civic authorities to the gathering and dwelt on the meaning of Christian citizenship. The representatives of the Presbyterian and Congregational rallies, Rev. L. A. McLean and J. H. Doig, then appeared and delivered the greetings of the sister organizations.

The officers in charge of the rally were: Rev. H. E. Thomas, chairman, H. W. Bromfield, conductor, M. L. Harrison, leader of orchestra, Miss Alice Hea, organist, Executive—R. T. Hayes, chairman; Alfred Burley, secretary; R. D. Smith, treasurer. The schools represented were: Queen Square, R. D. Smith, supt. Centenary, J. E. Arthur, supt. Exmouth street, E. B. Thomas, supt. Portland, R. T. Hayes, supt. Carleton, Alfred Burley, supt. Carmarthen St., Geo. M. Calhoun, supt. Zion, F. S. Purdy, supt. Fairville, Jeremiah Stout, supt. Silver Falls, Brookville, LeBaron Jordan and J. W. Cassidy, supt. Marsh Bridge Mission, C. Fraser McTavish, supt.

SICK DAUGHTER NOW WELL

Fitchville, Ohio.—"I take great pleasure in writing to thank you for what you medicine has done for my daughter.

"Before taking your medicine she was all run down, suffered from pains in her side, could not walk but a short distance at a time, and had severe pains in head and limbs. She came very near having nervous prostration. She had begun to cough a good deal and seemed melancholy by spells. She tried two doctors but got little benefit. "I cannot find words to express my gratefulness for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound has done for my daughter. She feels and looks like another girl since taking it, and I shall always feel that I owe you a great debt. "You can use this letter for the benefit of others if you wish, as I shall always recommend your medicine for female troubles."—Mrs. C. COLE, Fitchville, Ohio.

Hundreds of such letters from neighbors expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound has done for them, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Young Girls, Read This Advice.—Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

JOHN PANKHURST WAS VERY WELL KNOWN HERE

Uncle of Suffragette Leaders Dead in Chicago — Lived Some Years in St. John—A Newspaper Man.

Chicago, Dec. 30.—John Pankhurst, uncle of Miss Christabel and Miss Sylvia Pankhurst and brother-in-law of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the English suffragette leader, died at his home here today. Mr. Pankhurst was eighty-six years old and his death was due to old age.

Mr. Pankhurst was born in Manchester, England, the home of the suffragist members of his family. He came to this city last September. He had lived in Canada, where he had resided for fourteen years. IMPOSSIBLE TO BELIEVE ST. PATRICK'S ORPHANS HAD A GALA HOLIDAY

Annual Entertainment and Christmas Tree Provided by Father Mathew Association — Many Out from City.

The orphans of St. Patrick's home, Silver Falls, were entertained yesterday in the usual manner by the Father Mathew Association.

A large number of guests and friends of the children were present among whom were His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc, Father McCormick, Father Borsman, Com. Agar and Thomas Kichham. Parties left the city about 10 o'clock and immediately on their arrival began the entertainment for the children. Rev. Father O'Neill presided.

The greater part of the programme was composed of songs, readings and choruses by the children, which were warmly appreciated. His Lordship and Com. Agar spoke briefly to the children, complimenting them on their fine appearance, and the splendid manner in which they carried out their programme.

The president of the F. M. A., Fred Hazel, thanked those who had contributed so generously to the free, happy and memorable occasion for the children. He then, on behalf of the society presented to the orphans the tree laden with gifts. The tree was then stripped, and a pleasant hour was spent conversing with the happy children.

ALL YOU NEED IS A CASCARET TONIGHT

No Headache, Sour Stomach, Biliousness or Constipation by Morning.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, the biliousness, the indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascaret.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach. Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascaret cleanse and regulate your stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.

LACK OF EXERCISE Brings on Troubles which are Best Corrected by Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. Man was intended to live an active, outdoor life, and his digestive system was modeled accordingly.

Indoor work with hands or head, long hours sitting or standing still, especially in air that is not too good, slow down the healthy activities of stomach, liver, kidneys and the millions of tiny skin glands.

Constipation, headaches, indigestion, biliousness, rheumatism and similar troubles follow. Then the worth of that good old reliable family medicine, Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, is appreciated.

Though it has been in use for over half a century, modern science has not been able to devise a safer or better cleanser for the whole system. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are largely vegetable in composition, free from any harmful drug, and mild yet most effective in their action.

THE POLLARDS SCORE IN SERGEANT BRUE

Before an audience which taxed the capacity of the Opera House last evening the Pollard Juvenile Opera Company scored what might be termed the biggest success in this city.

The bill on this occasion was the light opera favorite, "Sergeant Brue," made famous by Frank Daniels, the diminutive comedian, in his palmy days and the performance put to shame many an effort by adult organizations. The voices are all of a delightful quality, while there has been abundant evidence of thorough training and rehearsal.

The solo singing of Eva Pollard, Nellie McNamara and Phyllis Phillips aroused the audience to intense admiration, while the ballet dances were also warmly received. Special praise is due to that very clever young comedienne, Queens Williams, whose mimetic ability won for her the critical verdict of the audience.

Teddie McNamara made an immense hit as "Sergeant Brue." "Sergeant Brue" will be repeated this evening and Monday night, while "The Mikado" will be the attractive offering for tomorrow and Saturday.

PUTTING HIM DOWN. (Philadelphia Item.) Gov. Eberhart of Minnesota during a recent address told the following story of his own experience: "Once while travelling through my State I was noticing in particular the great amount of waste that was going on about me. During the afternoon went into the dining car, which was crowded, so I sat down near one end of the car, opposite a fleshy lady, who I thought weighed at least 250 pounds. "As I looked past the lady through the car window, not noticing her particularly, I was impressed by the vast amount of farm machinery that was unsheltered and exposed to the weather, and what could not help but remark, 'What a waste!' "The lady opposite me faced me squarely and said: 'Mister, you just mind your own business.'"
