M'GRAW LETS OUT FOUR MEN

Marlin, Tex., March 18.—The New York Giants Regulars and Colts returned to Marlin at 5 o'clock this morning in jubilant spirits over their victories in Austin and San Antonio. The practice game this afternoon turned out to be an absolute slugging bee, the regulars winning 14 to 12. McGraw announced today that Torrey, Evers, Kirby and Robertson will be disposed of. Torrey and Evers will probably go to Scranton, Penn., and Kirby to Mobile, Ala. He is undecided where Robertson will be placed. Young Toby Thompson will return to New York city tomorrow night.

GASPEREAU NEWS.

Gaspereau, Mar. 17.—The recent heavy rain has taken the snow off so that the lumbermen who did not have all their logs hauled out to the streams had to abandon the work. Mrs. Horatio Demaris, formerly of Westfield, has returned to her old home after receiving news of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Fred Porter. George Smith and Lily Austin, who had been engaged in the timber game on Salmon River for the past 17 months, have returned home. Mrs. Cox of Cornwall, N. B., is visiting her sister Mrs. Daniel Fowler. Miss Agnes Hopkins, who has been in a Chipman for some time, is recovering and is now visiting her sister Mrs. James Jardine. Dugal Fulton of Fulton Brook, N. B., spent last Sunday here. He was warmly welcomed by many of his old friends.

Was Afraid GOLD WOULD DEVELOP INTO Bronchitis.

Bronchitis begins with a tightness across the chest, difficulty of breathing, and a wheezing sound comes from the lungs. There is also a raising of phlegm from the lungs, especially in the morning. This is at first white, but later becomes of a greenish or yellowish color, and is occasionally streaked with blood. On the first sign of a cold or cough take Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and prevent it turning to bronchitis, for once bronchitis gets installed into the system it is only a short step to Consumption. Mrs. F. Saunders, Toronto, Ont., writes: "It is with great success I have used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. My little girl had an awful cold which seemed to go to her throat and chest, and while she was sleeping one could distinctly hear her wheezing. I was afraid it would develop into bronchitis, so as soon as my husband came home I sent him right away to get a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. As soon as she inhaled it I gave her a dose and continued it up until she became quite better. We only used half a bottle. I will never be without it as I consider it invaluable." So you get "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it. The price is 25 and 50 cents per bottle. Put up in a yellow wrapper, and there you trace the trade mark. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

GIVE THE NEEDY A BOOST-- TELLS HOW TO REACH HEAVEN

FITZSIMMONS JR., AND HIS FAMOUS DADDY.

New York, N. Y., March 18.—Bob Fitzsimmons—no longer the hairy conqueror of the prize ring, but a kindly frock-coated gentleman with a message—talked the other night to the motemen and conductors of the Paterson car lines. Five hundred or more carmen hung on his words, which would have sounded like platitudes if they had not come from a man whose most striking characteristic is that he lives his own doctrine. At the end of the little talk the men set up a yell of loving homage, that, for volume and sincerity, might have been an uproar at the ringside. Only there was a difference. Fitz, now that his days in the arena are gone, recognizes the difference and likes it. He has learned how to reach men's hearts with words. It was long ago, anyway, as time is counted in the fighter's world, that Bob's fists were supreme. He says he had enough of that. The advice it might have been uttered by any professional guide to human beings—from Aesop, the old fable spinner, to a modern minister of the Gospel, "Avoid the easily acquired vice," "Do not smoke cigarettes," "Do not drink," "Do not gamble." "Do not associate with men who have won success without labor."

The Y. M. C. A. Maxims.

These are the doctrines which the aging warrior has ground out of his own success. They are identical with the maxims of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, with the advice of prosperous bankers to their clerks, with the confidential talks of most fathers to their sons. The former middle and heavy-weight champion of the world, as he sits the glass of milk which is his customary toast, carries the evidence of his life programme in the glance of his clear eye, in the color of his firm cheeks. He lives his philosophy better even than he talks it. On the car which carries Fitzsimmons daily to his home in Nutley, N. J., the prize-fighter fell into talk a few days ago with the conductor. Fitz began life in England as a blacksmith. The carman, it appeared, had worked in the machine shops. Both of them knew the trick of twisting white-hot metal into shape. More than that, they proved to brother Cornishmen, years before in the little village at the southern tip of England where conqueror and car conductor both saw the light. Stan Hunt had heard—only heard—of Fitz's mother. But the mention of her name was enough to bring the pugilist's heart has not ceased to ache, he says, since she died. In a moment Hunt had been invited to visit the old Kingsland mansion in Nutley, where Fitzsimmons lives with his friend, Dan McGillicuddy. The conductor faltered, then said timidly: "I was going to ask you Thursday night to see a little play I wrote—a Cornish play. At the Railway Employers' Clubroom in Paterson. All the boys from the bars will be there. Would you—could you make it?" "Would it?" cried Fitz. "I'd go farther than Paterson to see a Cornish play. I'll be there in my evening clothes. I'll make you a little speech. Want me to?"

Senor Don Lito Jose Ybarra, better known under his ring alias of Joe Rivers, will arrive at manhood's estate, having been born in Los Angeles on March 19, 1892. Senior Rivers is now a happy benedict, having recently married the daughter of an Angel City contractor. His next important hour will probably be with Leach Cross, the Jewish dentist, whom he defeated in New York some time ago. Joe is by all odds the best Spanish-American scrapper in ring history, but there have been very few, the generality of Latin-Americans never having taken kindly to

SHERIDAN TO REMAIN AN AMATEUR

Sportsman has always had great admiration for Martin Sheridan, a wonderful athlete and a sportsman, and a story that George Underwood (Springer) tells states, that the money offered for the ex-all-round champion. Underwood, to please a promoter, who saw something big in an all-round professional competition between Sheridan and Jim Thorpe, sounded the bell on the subject and here was his reply: "It looks as if the card would be a great drawing card, and it ought to pull a big gate. The last year he was would come in handy to me. However, I am afraid that I will have to turn it down. In the first place I have been an amateur for so long and value my amateur standing too much to turn pro at this late date. "In the second place it would take several months for me to get in condition for an all-round contest. I would not compete unless I was in condition to give the public a run for their money. I am in a position now where if it had been caused, the game would very likely have been saved to the Giants. As it was, he followed with a hint."
