

VED CURED

ento Says "I Am
ed." After Taking

ONTO, Oct. 1st, 1913.

regarding what I term a "fruit-tive." You may pub
so. I have lived in this hands. I have spent a lot
"fruit-tive." I have taken to tell you that I am and perhaps never will of work. I have gained that "Fruit-tive" has
R. A. WAUGH, rma, feet, legs, joints or is formed when there is of the kidneys, bowels or ing the system of waste condition of the stomach
the bowels and improve Rheumatism because and vitality to the stomis as stubborn disease, used according to diealers or sent on receipt

White entertained friends last Sunday.
trip to Mexico.
try to hear that Mr. Wal-to while at Clifton last even is spending a few home of Mr. and Mrs.
Colwell bade his friends
Adrienne as he is leaving Adrienne has accepted a sex where she will re-summer.
White returned this days' landing where he days.

John Clearings
for the week ending $17,121.71, and for the week last year $1,542.

AR'S LAUNDRY FOR EARNING.

mer Garments in, in the new three rths, made with new t of those are New me at from $5.50 to coat Suits

in the latest Eton
ts. These are also
and are very attrac-
$9.50 and $11.50

Costumes popular lines of ally adapted for the maritime Provinces,
rose pink or helio, combinations; the added figure, and the tored raine.

Piece Dresses dresses, in almost all newest wash rations and the
All the new as well as cts.

CO., NDON HOUSE

MONCTON

Moncton, June 12.—Ex-Judge W. W. Wells, has arrived in the city from St. John, and is a guest at the Brunswick Hotel.

Miss Daisy Rand, of the Melrose Hospital, Montreal, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. N. L. Rand, for a few weeks.

Mrs. H. B. Strohman and baby, of Alberton, P. E. is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Jones.

Dr. C. A. Murray, has arrived home from Winnipeg, where he was attending the Dominion Dental Convention.

Mr. Walter Court, of the Bank of Montreal staff, Montreal, has arrived in Moncton to spend his holidays at his former home here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baxter, formerly of this city, but now of St. John, N. B., are receiving old acquaintances in town.

Mr. George D. Prescott, M.L.A., and Mrs. Prescott, of Alberton, arrived in Moncton on Monday and were guests at the Brunswick Hotel.

Miss Lou Nelson, of Campbellton, who has been the guest, for a few days, of Mr. and Mrs. L. Malcolm left this week for Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Lodge, of Moncton, registered at the Canadian office, London, England, May 29th.

G. Messrs. H. St. Clair Sprague, G. F. Lites, and E. Surridge have gone to St. John to take the Pharmaceutical examinations of the N. B. Society.

Mr. R. P. Dickson and Misses Francis and Jessie Dickson, were called to Hillsboro, owing to the serious illness of their father, Hon. W. B. Dickson, M.L.A.

Mrs. C. E. Brown, has returned from a trip to Montreal, where she was the guest of Mrs. H. Griffith Jones, Oldfield Ave.

Mrs. F. A. McCully's many friends are pleased to learn that she is being convalescent and is able to take slight recreation in the grounds of her residence.

Miss May Benedict, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Benedict, of St. John, New Brunswick, and former residents of Moncton, is the guest of Mrs. Dr. H. S. Thomson, Alma St.

Ald. Alfonso Kitchen, accompanied by Mrs. Kitchen and Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Lee, returned from Fredericton, and spent this week in Moncton.

The many friends of Mr. Stanley Lockhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lockhart, of this city, will be glad to learn that he received the degree of B. Sc. at McGill College, on Tuesday of this week. Mr. Lockhart arrived home on Wednesday.

Mrs. W. D. Martin and Miss Chalmers, of Halifax, have gone to Chatham to spend several weeks.

Master Raymond Bernard, of Richibucto, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. E. S. Scott, Robinson St.

Miss Elizabeth Polley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Polley, formerly of Moncton, but now of Cambridge, Mass., was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph M. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thompson, of Moncton, on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Polley, 97 Concord Avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. A. E. Palmquist, in the presence of about 100 guests.

The bride was gown in white satin with shadow lace trimmings, and wore a long veil caught up with lilacs of the valley and roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mabel Polley, and Miss Margaret Warner, of Moncton, both of whom were gown in pink crepe de chene with oriental lace overdrapes and carried large bouquets of sweet peas.

Miss Martha, another sister of the bride, acted as flower girl, and wore pink crepe de chene with lace trimmings, and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. After the ceremony a reception was held. A collation was served. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and chainette, to the bridesmaid and flower girl, he gave gold topaz rings, and to the best man, Mr. C. G. Polley, Jr., and Mr. R. Easter, he gave necktie pins. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left on an extended wedding trip, which will take in Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis and New York, after which they will reside in Moncton.

Mr. W. F. Humphrey, were in America this week on business.

Mrs. Hammond Johnson and children, of Beauce, P. E. I., are guests of Mrs. A. N. Wyse, Highfield St.

Mrs. W. P. Vill, of St. John, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Willett, at the Hotel Brunswick.

Ald. E. A. Fryers, Mr. A. Humphrey, and B. Steeves who together with Ald. C. Robinson, and R. F. Kinnan, have been making a tour of the Canadian West, returned to Moncton.

Messrs. Robinson and Kinnan remained in Moncton until Thursday. The party enjoyed first-class weather, and the trip was a most enjoyable one.

Moncton, June 12.—The tennis season opened on Saturday last, when the ladies committee who presided at the tea house were Mrs. Walter A. Harrison, Miss MacKean and Miss Alice Fairweather. Those who will have charge of the tea this week are Mrs. James T. Robinson, Mrs. Daniel, Miss Daniel and Miss Purdy.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Caverhill Jones and family moved from St. John this week, and will spend the summer at their cottage here.

Luncheon guests on Tuesday of Mrs. R. E. Puddington and Miss Puddington were Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mrs. W. Malcolm MacKay, Mrs. John H. Thomson, and Mrs. James S. Harding. Additional guests who came with their sewing and enjoyed afternoon tea, were Mrs. Andrew Blair, Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. James F. Robinson, Miss Hooper, Mrs. Royden Thomson, Mrs. H. F. Puddington, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. Walter Harrison, Miss Whitaker, Mrs. Pillebury, Boston and Mrs. Stanley, Montreal.

Mrs. Pillebury and Mrs. Stanley were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robinson.

A luncheon and "shower" in honor of Miss Alys Armstrong, whose marriage to Mr. Mansell took place this week, was given by Mrs. John M. Robinson, and very greatly enjoyed. The guests were Miss Alys Armstrong, Miss Celia Armstrong, Mrs. John V. Davidson, Mrs. Gifford Bishop, Mrs. Beverly Armstrong, Miss Louise Pette, Gagetown, Mrs. Madge Robinson, Miss Alice Christie and Mrs. Geo. Lockhart. The dainty luncheon table decorated with spring flowers had as place cards pretty china slippers and a spray of orange blossoms. During the afternoon Miss Armstrong was presented with an artistic basket containing gifts of handkerchiefs and neckwear. Bridge tables were formed. Miss Christie capturing the prize.

Mrs. M. A. Schofield who has been spending a few days here with Mrs. John Mitchell expects soon to leave St. John to spend the summer with her sisters in Halifax.

Among the several entertainments given in honor of the graduating class of "Netherwood" school, was a grand enjoyed dance at which the Misses MacKean were hostesses. Those of the graduates present were Misses Doris Sayer, Mary King, Isabel Jack, Edith Miller, Marion Moore, Agnes MacKean, also Miss Johnston, Miss Palmer, Mrs. Robert Thomson, Miss Emma Turnbull, Miss George Trueman, Miss Little West, Miss Daniel, Miss Purdy, Messrs. Elmer Puddington, G. Gormley, Mr. Campbell, James Gilbert, C. Walklate, Cecil West, Miss Bell, Herbert West, and others.

Miss Royce Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Carter, of Fair Vale, left on Thursday for Quebec, where she left by S.S. "Meganite" to visit her brother, Mr. Arthur Carter, U.N.B. Rhodes Scholar now at Oxford. Mr. Carter expects to be away all summer and her many friends are wishing for her a delightful trip.

Among those from Roddaway who were guests at the wedding of Miss Alys Armstrong and Mr. Mansell in St. John on Wednesday, were: Mr. and Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Puddington, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Armstrong, and Mr. L. P. D. Tilley, who supported the groom.

Among those from Roddaway who were guests of Rev. W. R. Hibbard and Mrs. Hibbard, who were at the College Chapel on Monday night of the students were confirmed, the service being attended by friends of the boys, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and family of Moncton have re-opened their summer home on Wednesday.

Mrs. W. D. Martin and Miss Chalmers, of Halifax, have gone to Chatham to spend several weeks.

Master Raymond Bernard, of Richibucto, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. E. S. Scott, Robinson St.

Miss Elizabeth Polley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Polley, formerly of Moncton, but now of Cambridge, Mass., was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph M. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thompson, of Moncton, on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Polley, 97 Concord Avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. A. E. Palmquist, in the presence of about 100 guests.

The bride was gown in white satin with shadow lace trimmings, and wore a long veil caught up with lilacs of the valley and roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mabel Polley, and Miss Margaret Warner, of Moncton, both of whom were gown in pink crepe de chene with oriental lace overdrapes and carried large bouquets of sweet peas.

Miss Martha, another sister of the bride, acted as flower girl, and wore pink crepe de chene with lace trimmings, and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. After the ceremony a reception was held. A collation was served. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and chainette, to the bridesmaid and flower girl, he gave gold topaz rings, and to the best man, Mr. C. G. Polley, Jr., and Mr. R. Easter, he gave necktie pins. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left on an extended wedding trip, which will take in Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis and New York, after which they will reside in Moncton.

Mr. W. F. Humphrey, were in America this week on business.

a opening of the ROTHESAY

Rothsay, June 12.—The tennis season opened on Saturday last, when the ladies committee who presided at the tea house were Mrs. Walter A. Harrison, Miss MacKean and Miss Alice Fairweather. Those who will have charge of the tea this week are Mrs. James T. Robinson, Mrs. Daniel, Miss Daniel and Miss Purdy.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Caverhill Jones and family moved from St. John this week, and will spend the summer at their cottage here.

Luncheon guests on Tuesday of Mrs. R. E. Puddington and Miss Puddington were Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mrs. W. Malcolm MacKay, Mrs. John H. Thomson, and Mrs. James S. Harding. Additional guests who came with their sewing and enjoyed afternoon tea, were Mrs. Andrew Blair, Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. James F. Robinson, Miss Hooper, Mrs. Royden Thomson, Mrs. H. F. Puddington, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. Walter Harrison, Miss Whitaker, Mrs. Pillebury, Boston and Mrs. Stanley, Montreal.

Mrs. Pillebury and Mrs. Stanley were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robinson.

A luncheon and "shower" in honor of Miss Alys Armstrong, whose marriage to Mr. Mansell took place this week, was given by Mrs. John M. Robinson, and very greatly enjoyed. The guests were Miss Alys Armstrong, Miss Celia Armstrong, Mrs. John V. Davidson, Mrs. Gifford Bishop, Mrs. Beverly Armstrong, Miss Louise Pette, Gagetown, Mrs. Madge Robinson, Miss Alice Christie and Mrs. Geo. Lockhart. The dainty luncheon table decorated with spring flowers had as place cards pretty china slippers and a spray of orange blossoms. During the afternoon Miss Armstrong was presented with an artistic basket containing gifts of handkerchiefs and neckwear. Bridge tables were formed. Miss Christie capturing the prize.

Mrs. M. A. Schofield who has been spending a few days here with Mrs. John Mitchell expects soon to leave St. John to spend the summer with her sisters in Halifax.

Among the several entertainments given in honor of the graduating class of "Netherwood" school, was a grand enjoyed dance at which the Misses MacKean were hostesses. Those of the graduates present were Misses Doris Sayer, Mary King, Isabel Jack, Edith Miller, Marion Moore, Agnes MacKean, also Miss Johnston, Miss Palmer, Mrs. Robert Thomson, Miss Emma Turnbull, Miss George Trueman, Miss Little West, Miss Daniel, Miss Purdy, Messrs. Elmer Puddington, G. Gormley, Mr. Campbell, James Gilbert, C. Walklate, Cecil West, Miss Bell, Herbert West, and others.

Miss Royce Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Carter, of Fair Vale, left on Thursday for Quebec, where she left by S.S. "Meganite" to visit her brother, Mr. Arthur Carter, U.N.B. Rhodes Scholar now at Oxford. Mr. Carter expects to be away all summer and her many friends are wishing for her a delightful trip.

Among those from Roddaway who were guests at the wedding of Miss Alys Armstrong and Mr. Mansell in St. John on Wednesday, were: Mr. and Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Puddington, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Armstrong, and Mr. L. P. D. Tilley, who supported the groom.

Among those from Roddaway who were guests of Rev. W. R. Hibbard and Mrs. Hibbard, who were at the College Chapel on Monday night of the students were confirmed, the service being attended by friends of the boys, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and family of Moncton have re-opened their summer home on Wednesday.

Mrs. W. D. Martin and Miss Chalmers, of Halifax, have gone to Chatham to spend several weeks.

Master Raymond Bernard, of Richibucto, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. E. S. Scott, Robinson St.

Miss Elizabeth Polley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Polley, formerly of Moncton, but now of Cambridge, Mass., was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph M. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thompson, of Moncton, on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Polley, 97 Concord Avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. A. E. Palmquist, in the presence of about 100 guests.

The bride was gown in white satin with shadow lace trimmings, and wore a long veil caught up with lilacs of the valley and roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mabel Polley, and Miss Margaret Warner, of Moncton, both of whom were gown in pink crepe de chene with oriental lace overdrapes and carried large bouquets of sweet peas.

Miss Martha, another sister of the bride, acted as flower girl, and wore pink crepe de chene with lace trimmings, and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. After the ceremony a reception was held. A collation was served. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and chainette, to the bridesmaid and flower girl, he gave gold topaz rings, and to the best man, Mr. C. G. Polley, Jr., and Mr. R. Easter, he gave necktie pins. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left on an extended wedding trip, which will take in Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis and New York, after which they will reside in Moncton.

Mr. W. F. Humphrey, were in America this week on business.

Mrs. Hammond Johnson and children, of Beauce, P. E. I., are guests of Mrs. A. N. Wyse, Highfield St.

Mrs. W. P. Vill, of St. John, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Willett, at the Hotel Brunswick.

Ald. E. A. Fryers, Mr. A. Humphrey, and B. Steeves who together with Ald. C. Robinson, and R. F. Kinnan, have been making a tour of the Canadian West, returned to Moncton.

Messrs. Robinson and Kinnan remained in Moncton until Thursday. The party enjoyed first-class weather, and the trip was a most enjoyable one.

Moncton, June 12.—The tennis season opened on Saturday last, when the ladies committee who presided at the tea house were Mrs. Walter A. Harrison, Miss MacKean and Miss Alice Fairweather. Those who will have charge of the tea this week are Mrs. James T. Robinson, Mrs. Daniel, Miss Daniel and Miss Purdy.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Caverhill Jones and family moved from St. John this week, and will spend the summer at their cottage here.

Luncheon guests on Tuesday of Mrs. R. E. Puddington and Miss Puddington were Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mrs. W. Malcolm MacKay, Mrs. John H. Thomson, and Mrs. James S. Harding. Additional guests who came with their sewing and enjoyed afternoon tea, were Mrs. Andrew Blair, Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. James F. Robinson, Miss Hooper, Mrs. Royden Thomson, Mrs. H. F. Puddington, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. Walter Harrison, Miss Whitaker, Mrs. Pillebury, Boston and Mrs. Stanley, Montreal.

Mrs. Pillebury and Mrs. Stanley were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robinson.

A luncheon and "shower" in honor of Miss Alys Armstrong, whose marriage to Mr. Mansell took place this week, was given by Mrs. John M. Robinson, and very greatly enjoyed. The guests were Miss Alys Armstrong, Miss Celia Armstrong, Mrs. John V. Davidson, Mrs. Gifford Bishop, Mrs. Beverly Armstrong, Miss Louise Pette, Gagetown, Mrs. Madge Robinson, Miss Alice Christie and Mrs. Geo. Lockhart. The dainty luncheon table decorated with spring flowers had as place cards pretty china slippers and a spray of orange blossoms. During the afternoon Miss Armstrong was presented with an artistic basket containing gifts of handkerchiefs and neckwear. Bridge tables were formed. Miss Christie capturing the prize.

Mrs. M. A. Schofield who has been spending a few days here with Mrs. John Mitchell expects soon to leave St. John to spend the summer with her sisters in Halifax.

Among the several entertainments given in honor of the graduating class of "Netherwood" school, was a grand enjoyed dance at which the Misses MacKean were hostesses. Those of the graduates present were Misses Doris Sayer, Mary King, Isabel Jack, Edith Miller, Marion Moore, Agnes MacKean, also Miss Johnston, Miss Palmer, Mrs. Robert Thomson, Miss Emma Turnbull, Miss George Trueman, Miss Little West, Miss Daniel, Miss Purdy, Messrs. Elmer Puddington, G. Gormley, Mr. Campbell, James Gilbert, C. Walklate, Cecil West, Miss Bell, Herbert West, and others.

Miss Royce Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Carter, of Fair Vale, left on Thursday for Quebec, where she left by S.S. "Meganite" to visit her brother, Mr. Arthur Carter, U.N.B. Rhodes Scholar now at Oxford. Mr. Carter expects to be away all summer and her many friends are wishing for her a delightful trip.

Among those from Roddaway who were guests at the wedding of Miss Alys Armstrong and Mr. Mansell in St. John on Wednesday, were: Mr. and Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Puddington, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Armstrong, and Mr. L. P. D. Tilley, who supported the groom.

Among those from Roddaway who were guests of Rev. W. R. Hibbard and Mrs. Hibbard, who were at the College Chapel on Monday night of the students were confirmed, the service being attended by friends of the boys, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and family of Moncton have re-opened their summer home on Wednesday.

Mrs. W. D. Martin and Miss Chalmers, of Halifax, have gone to Chatham to spend several weeks.

Master Raymond Bernard, of Richibucto, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. E. S. Scott, Robinson St.

Miss Elizabeth Polley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Polley, formerly of Moncton, but now of Cambridge, Mass., was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph M. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thompson, of Moncton, on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Polley, 97 Concord Avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. A. E. Palmquist, in the presence of about 100 guests.

The bride was gown in white satin with shadow lace trimmings, and wore a long veil caught up with lilacs of the valley and roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mabel Polley, and Miss Margaret Warner, of Moncton, both of whom were gown in pink crepe de chene with oriental lace overdrapes and carried large bouquets of sweet peas.

Miss Martha, another sister of the bride, acted as flower girl, and wore pink crepe de chene with lace trimmings, and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. After the ceremony a reception was held. A collation was served. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and chainette, to the bridesmaid and flower girl, he gave gold topaz rings, and to the best man, Mr. C. G. Polley, Jr., and Mr. R. Easter, he gave necktie pins. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left on an extended wedding trip, which will take in Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis and New York, after which they will reside in Moncton.

Mr. W. F. Humphrey, were in America this week on business.

Mrs. Hammond Johnson and children, of Beauce, P. E. I., are guests of Mrs. A. N. Wyse, Highfield St.

Mrs. W. P. Vill, of St. John, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Willett, at the Hotel Brunswick.

Ald. E. A. Fryers, Mr. A. Humphrey, and B. Steeves who together with Ald. C. Robinson, and R. F. Kinnan, have been making a tour of the Canadian West, returned to Moncton.

Messrs. Robinson and Kinnan remained in Moncton until Thursday. The party enjoyed first-class weather, and the trip was a most enjoyable one.

Moncton, June 12.—The tennis season opened on Saturday last, when the ladies committee who presided at the tea house were Mrs. Walter A. Harrison, Miss MacKean and Miss Alice Fairweather. Those who will have charge of the tea this week are Mrs. James T. Robinson, Mrs. Daniel, Miss Daniel and Miss Purdy.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Caverhill Jones and family moved from St. John this week, and will spend the summer at their cottage here.

Luncheon guests on Tuesday of Mrs. R. E. Puddington and Miss Puddington were Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mrs. W. Malcolm MacKay, Mrs. John H. Thomson, and Mrs. James S. Harding. Additional guests who came with their sewing and enjoyed afternoon tea, were Mrs. Andrew Blair, Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. James F. Robinson, Miss Hooper, Mrs. Royden Thomson, Mrs. H. F. Puddington, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. Walter Harrison, Miss Whitaker, Mrs. Pillebury, Boston and Mrs. Stanley, Montreal.

Mrs. Pillebury and Mrs. Stanley were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robinson.

A luncheon and "shower" in honor of Miss Alys Armstrong, whose marriage to Mr. Mansell took place this week, was given by Mrs. John M. Robinson, and very greatly enjoyed. The guests were Miss Alys Armstrong, Miss Celia Armstrong, Mrs. John V. Davidson, Mrs. Gifford Bishop, Mrs. Beverly Armstrong, Miss Louise Pette, Gagetown, Mrs. Madge Robinson, Miss Alice Christie and Mrs. Geo. Lockhart. The dainty luncheon table decorated with spring flowers had as place cards pretty china slippers and a spray of orange blossoms. During the afternoon Miss Armstrong was presented with an artistic basket containing gifts of handkerchiefs and neckwear. Bridge tables were formed. Miss Christie capturing the prize.

Mrs. M. A. Schofield who has been spending a few days here with Mrs. John Mitchell expects soon to leave St. John to spend the summer with her sisters in Halifax.

Among the several entertainments given in honor of the graduating class of "Netherwood" school, was a grand enjoyed dance at which the Misses MacKean were hostesses. Those of the graduates present were Misses Doris Sayer, Mary King, Isabel Jack, Edith Miller, Marion Moore, Agnes MacKean, also Miss Johnston, Miss Palmer, Mrs. Robert Thomson, Miss Emma Turnbull, Miss George Trueman, Miss Little West, Miss Daniel, Miss Purdy, Messrs. Elmer Puddington, G. Gormley, Mr. Campbell, James Gilbert, C. Walklate, Cecil West, Miss Bell, Herbert West, and others.

Miss Royce Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Carter, of Fair Vale, left on Thursday for Quebec, where she left by S.S. "Meganite" to visit her brother, Mr. Arthur Carter, U.N.B. Rhodes Scholar now at Oxford. Mr. Carter expects to be away all summer and her many friends are wishing for her a delightful trip.

Among those from Roddaway who were guests at the wedding of Miss Alys Armstrong and Mr. Mansell in St. John on Wednesday, were: Mr. and Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Puddington, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Armstrong, and Mr. L. P. D. Tilley, who supported the groom.

Mrs. H. F. Puddington, Rev. A. W. Daniel and Mrs. Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Starr, Miss Ethel Sydney Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Starr, Mr. Ferniston Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Peters, of Gagetown and three daughters, Mrs. du Verney, of Disby, Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather, Mrs. Margaret Fairweather, and Mrs. Brock, Nev. H. A. Holmes and Miss Holmes and others. Mrs. Miss Holmes are guests at the college this week also Mrs. West of Edmundston.

Miss Grace Ayre has returned from Boston, where she spent the winter with friends and is occupying her new cottage at Gondola Point. Miss Jessie Fraser who was in St. John during the past few months, is a guest of Miss Ayre for the summer.

Miss Ethel Sydney-Smith of St. John, has been here a few days with Mrs. Starr.

At the tea hour on Friday, Mrs. and Miss Daniel entertained a party of young people very pleasantly. Among their guests were Miss Isabel Jack, Miss Doris Sayer, Miss Marion Moore, Miss Edith Miller, Miss Mary King, Miss Agnes MacKean, Miss Mary Henderson, Miss George Trueman, Miss Helen Heaven, of "Netherwood" school, Miss Emma Turnbull, Miss Little West, Miss Dorothy Purdy, Miss Anna MacKean, and from the college, Ray MacKay, Elmer Puddington, Harry Barker, J. Gernain Ratchford, S. Payne, Manzer N. Smith, F. Young, Alward, J. Gilbert, C. Walklate, M. Bell.

Last Sunday evening, Rev. J. C. Mortimer exchanged pulpits with Rev. E. H. Creed, of Hampton, who preached at the Presbyterian Church. The young ladies present being Misses Phyllis Kenney, Mary Armstrong, Dorothy "Ted," Grace, Donald, Bertha, Snowball, Althea Hazen, Edith Deacon, Hazel Warnerford, Edith Deacon, Geroldine Lee, Margaret Lebray, Mrs. Rhonda Schur now at Oxford. Mr. Carter expects to be away all summer and her many friends are wishing for her a delightful trip.

Among those from Roddaway who were guests at the wedding of Miss Alys Armstrong and Mr. Mansell in St. John on Wednesday, were: Mr. and Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Puddington, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Armstrong, and Mr. L. P. D. Tilley, who supported the groom.

Among those from Roddaway who were guests of Rev. W. R. Hibbard and Mrs. Hibbard, who were at the College Chapel on Monday night of the students were confirmed, the service being attended by friends of the boys, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and family of Moncton have re-opened their summer home on Wednesday.

Mrs. W. D. Martin and Miss Chalmers, of Halifax, have gone to Chatham to spend several weeks.

Master Raymond Bernard, of Richibucto, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. E. S. Scott, Robinson St.

Miss Elizabeth Polley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Polley, formerly of Moncton, but now of Cambridge, Mass., was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph M. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thompson, of Moncton, on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Polley, 97 Concord Avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. A. E. Palmquist, in the presence of about 100 guests.

The bride was gown in white satin with shadow lace trimmings, and wore a long veil caught up with lilacs of the valley and roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mabel Polley, and Miss Margaret Warner, of Moncton, both of whom were gown in pink crepe de chene with oriental lace overdrapes and carried large bouquets of sweet peas.

Miss Martha, another sister of the bride, acted as flower girl, and wore pink crepe de chene with lace trimmings, and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. After the ceremony a reception was held. A collation was served. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and chainette, to the bridesmaid and flower girl, he gave gold topaz rings, and to the best man, Mr. C. G. Polley, Jr., and Mr. R. Easter, he gave necktie pins. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left on an extended wedding trip, which will take in Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis and New York, after which they will reside in Moncton.

Mr. W. F. Humphrey, were in America this week on business.

Mrs. Hammond Johnson and children, of Beauce, P. E. I., are guests of Mrs. A. N. Wyse, Highfield St.

Mrs. W. P. Vill, of St. John, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Willett, at the Hotel Brunswick.

Ald. E. A. Fryers, Mr. A. Humphrey, and B. Steeves who together with Ald. C. Robinson, and R. F. Kinnan, have been making a tour of the Canadian West, returned to Moncton.

Messrs. Robinson and Kinnan remained in Moncton until Thursday. The party enjoyed first-class weather, and the trip was a most enjoyable one.

Moncton, June 12.—The tennis season opened on Saturday last, when the ladies committee who presided at the tea house were Mrs. Walter A. Harrison, Miss MacKean and Miss Alice Fairweather. Those who will have charge of the tea this week are Mrs. James T. Robinson,