OPENING OF NEW MASONIC HALL AT NEWCASTLE

Northumberland Lodge of Free Masons have now splendid new quarters.

Newcastle, Aug. 18.—Northumberland lodge of Free Masons celebrated the opening of their new hall tonight, when the old St. James' Sunday school hall, which they have leased, remodeled, painted and newly furnished, will be dedicated by Grand Master H. S. Bridges of St. John, assisted by Grand Sec. J. Twining Hart and other grand officers and members of Miramichi Lodge, No. 18, of Chatham.

Northumberland Lodge, which was chartered as No. 1063, under Grand Lodge of England, on April 16, 1857, and as No. 18 under Grand Lodge of New Brunswick, on May 16, 1868, has been without a regular meeting place since the opening of the war, when the former Masonic Hall was taken by the Dominion Government for military purposes. They have now an elegant home for a number of years to come. It is regrettable that the local master, Howard Williston, will be unable to be present, as he was compelled to leave for Halifax hospital yesterday with his daughter, Miss Laura, who is ill with appendicitis.

The death of Emilina Veronica, 3-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Quigley, took place from blood poisoning on Sunday. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon at St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, Rev. P. W. Dixon conducting the services. Pallbearers were James and Edward Hachey, Charles McGowan and Clarence Neff.

MARYSVILLE

Marysville, Aug. 18.—The general committee on the machine gun movement met last night at Odd Fellows hall. The secretary's report showed that after all the expenses were paid there was $13,705.58 on hand, with outstanding assets which will bring the net receipts up to $14,000 or even more.

It was decided to donate the balance left after purchasing the gun to the Red Cross Society.

Lieut. Col. Gray Jos. Dolphin and E. Kingsley, with the secretary and treasurer, will have charge of procuring the gun. A vote of thanks was passed to all who assisted in any way.

Mrs. Jos. Dolphin gave a very pretty at home in honor of her sister, Mrs. Denzell Monday afternoon. Mrs. Colliers and Mrs. Kingsley served. The rooms were very prettily decorated with goldenrod and sweet peas.

PATRIOTIC BAZAAR

AT WOODSTOCK A GREAT SUCCESS

The bazaar and garden fete under the auspices of the W. G. Circle of King's Daughters, upon Saturday evening, July 31st, at Woodstock, proved very successful, netting over $47.00, despite the electrical storm which deluged the guests, after a short hour and a half.

The grounds were tastefully decorated by Messrs. Fred Moore, Robert Welch, George Ransom and Charles Greer, and the brilliant electrical display was arranged by Mr. Fred McLean.

Of the proceeds, fourteen dollars goes to the W. G. Circle fund, and the balance to form a nucleus for a fund to assist our disabled and returning soldiers.

The High School orchestra furnished the music and to them as to the many kind friends who gave so willingly of their time and effort, the management desire to return their sincere thanks.

August 31st has been set aside by the W. G. Circle as tag day for the "Disabled Soldiers' Fund."
