More Claims for Credit.

There seem to be quite a number of people desiring of credit for the beaching of the Pictou after the great explosion. One of the latest to come to our hearing was Captain Banks Rutherford, of the tug Boonton, who said he would in many cases go far to ward making voyages less taxing to the shipmaster. In many instances the men which are sent aboard ships as able seamen have no knowledge of the compass or how to keep a course and in consequence the ship-master is kept busy endeavoring to find his position because of the ignorance or carelessness of the crew at the wheel. Men are sent to sea often times physically unfit for any which is required of them. In these days of steam for handling

Re Seamen's Qualifications.

An editorial in a recent issue of the New York Maritime Register says:
"A thorough examination of sailors as to their capabilities as seamen would in many cases go far to ward making voyages less taxing to
the shipmaster. In many instances
the men which are sent aboard ships
as able seamen have no knowledge

Salisbury

Salisbury, Oct. 29.—Rev. F. G.
Francis, former pastor of the Salisbury Baptist Church, who for the past six years has been preaching in Nova Scotia, is spending several days in Salisbury, accompanied by Mrs. Francis, and they are receiving a warm welcome from their friends. Mr. Francis is taking a much needed rest, and during the winter will make his headquarters in Moncton with his daughter, Mrs. George Wortman. He will be available for occasional supply work.

Mrs. Chapman, wife of Rev. Eugene Chapman of Walford, N. B., has returned home after spending several days with her aunt, Mrs. Eliza Smith.
Messrs. Victor R. Goward and G.
Allison Trites spent the weekend at their homes here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Leslie Kennedy and little daughter, Gretta of Moncton, spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Kennedy's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
George Wilson.

Mrs. Bernice Jones of the General Offices staff, Moncton, spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones.

Mrs. Wallace Taylor spent Thursday with her son, Mr. Preese Taylor and Mrs. Taylor, Sunny Drive.

Mr. Job Gaskin of Boston, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
S. H. Taylor, recently.

The condition of Mrs. Myrtle Lawson, who has been seriously ill at the Moncton City Hospital, shows considerable improvement, the last two days.

THE DECALOGUE OF LABOR.

(New York Tribune.)

1. Thou shalt not shrink production.
By it all are fed. It is the mother of every material blessing.

2. Thou shalt not break contracts.
Neither plenty nor brotherhood is possible when men are liars.

3. Thou shalt not raise thy hand against the better machine or method invention. It is the curse pronounced against Adam.

4. Thou shalt not slack on the job.
The unused talent rusts and the sluggard dies against his soul as against the leisure and happiness of his colleagues.

5. Thou shalt not put three men to the work of two. The third is a burden carried by two.

6. Thou shalt not deny freedom to others. Another's right to work is as sacred as thy right to quit. He may also bargain.

7. Thou shalt not deem an employer an enemy. He is thy partner and earns his wage.

8. Thou shalt not oppress the consumer. Strip him and he lacks wherewith to buy the work of thy hands.

9. Thou shalt obey the law, the mandate of the majority. If it suits thee not persuade, but beware of the barbarism which distils the poison that might creates right.

10. Be thou a man, independent, full, statured, mindful of the moral law, guided by an intelligence which sees and was the guest of his brother, Mr.
Robert Webber.
