Among the press comments tonight is that of the Kreuz Zeitung, which says:
"Thus the fighting power of the third column is destroyed, and the campaign against the Boers is disastrously ended. What, however, means more, is that England's decadence, long ago apparent to far-sighted statesmen, has thus become visible before the whole world.

The Vossische Zeitung says: "The English yesterday, met the greatest defeat of this campaign so productive of disarnointments and losses."

London, Dec. 16.—While Gen. Buller's revrese was an unexpected blow to the public that had pinned its faith to him, it would appear that the original plan of campaign, if adhered to, would have given better results, for the besieged towns have shown themselves quite capable of holding out. As it is now, the British forces are split up, have been seriously repulsed, are unable to cooperate, and, at any rate, for the present, are unable to reach their objectives.

However, looked at, the British position is most unenviable and there is a great is most unenviable and there are unable to reach their objectives.

The Hamburg Boersenhalle advises conciliatory measures, advocating a reduction in the duty on maize and a less severe inspection on American commodities. It claims, however, that the American treatment of Germany in tariff administration is unfare.

A distinguished member of the diplomatic corps in the course of a discussion today regarding General Buller's reverse, said:

"It means morally far more for Great Britain, except perhaps, the Prince of Monaco."

London, Dec. 19.—An investigation into the causes of the semi-panic on the stock exchange yesterday fails to reveal any substantial reason apart from the timidity and nervousness of the public in the face of the reverses in South Africa. A correspondent of the Associated Press learns that the depreciation was not accompanied by any extensive liquidation, such as would occur in New York with a similar fall in prices. The changes were mostly in jobbers' quotations and did not attend the large transactions.

HAY FOR THE BRITISH ARMY

We desire to direct the attention of our farmers and hay dealers to the fact that the Canadian Minister of Agriculture has received instructions from the Imperial government to make another purchase of hay for the use of the Brit-ish army in South Africa. The British authorities want three thousand tons of two thousand pounds, and will pay nine view today as saying: "The issue of the war will depend more upon artillery than anything else, especially at the siege of Pretoria and other places, where the biggest battles are expected. Therefore I urge that all the naval guns which can be spared from the reserves and other ships be mounted on artillery trails and limbers for field service immediately. This move is necessary as there are no quick firing twelve pounders of twelve hundred weight in the army.

"The government should immediately commission every ship in "A" division of the navy as a needful precaution against any nation seeking to take advantage of Great Britain's condition. No friendly nation could object. It would only be running water through hosepipes so as to prepare for fire.

Don't Let it Run on Until Your Condition Causes You to be Ostracised as You Were a Leper.

"To Pretoria!' the British cry, is on a level with the Parisian cry of 1870, 'A Berlin!'"

This is an extract from a letter written by General Joubert from Ladysmith under date of October 27 to a contributor to the Berlin Gazette, in which paper it was published in full. Other passages which at this juncture will be read with peculiar interest follow:—

"Ever since the infamous Jameson raid of '96 our government was convinced that some disreputable characters would urge and of '96 our government was convinced that some disreputable characters would urge and follows:—

England to war. Its meaning could not be mistaken. It could have for its sole object only the annihilation of the Boer republic. We were equally sure that we would have to depend on our own resources, for, although we knew that this war would meet with the unanimous condemnation of all European powers, we demnation of all European powers, we did not present that are so humiliating to you and offensive to your friends.
