Q. 6.—What Preachers have died this year?

A.—ABRAHAM MORRIS. He was born July 26, 1801, in the parish of Godshell, Isle of Wight. He had been accustomed to attend the Methodist, Baptist, and Independent religious services; and, for two years, he taught in the Baptist Sabbath-school; but lived without converting grace until 22 years of age. About the year 1823, Bible Christian missionaries visited the Island. Influenced thereto by their labors, he began to seek the Lord in earnest, was savingly converted, and became eminent for piety. In due course, he became a Local Preacher; and, at the Conference of 1827, he was received as a candidate for the Itinerant Ministry, and appointed to his native Circuit in the Isle of Wight. He subsequently travelled on the Tenterden, Monmouth, Weare, Falmouth, Michaelstow, Brentor, Shebbear, Winkleigh, St. Neot, Week St. Mary, Scilly Islands, and Chichester stations; and on these stations many souls were converted under his ministry. At the Conference of 1847 he was appointed to Canada, where he labored on the Huntingdon, Hungerford, Seymour, Dummer, Mariposa, Bowmanville, and Scott stations.

* Bro. Pooley remains on trial the fifth year, at the request of his District Meeting.
