THEOLOGY.

Gill (John, D.D.) Exposition of the Old and New Testament. 9 vols, 4to, cloth backs, fine clean copy, 13.00. 1810. 1066

This is the best edition of Gill, the profound Calvinistic commentator, offered at about half the usual price.

"For a sound, consistent exposition of the Word of God, no commentary, we believe, in any language, can be compared with Dr. Gill's. . . . For English readers there is no commentary equal to Dr. Gill's."—Gospel Standard.

Poole's (Matthew) Annotations upon the Holy Bible, wherein the sacred text is inserted and various readings annexed, together with the parallel scriptures; the more difficult terms in each verse are explained, seeming contradictions reconciled, questions and doubts resolved, and the whole text opened. Port. 2 large thick vols, folio, full calf. The corners of a few of the preliminary pages torn off, otherwise a good sound copy. 2.25. Lon. 1688. 1067

Cecil says: "If we must have commentators, as we certainly must, Poole is incomparable, and I had almost said, abundant of himself." And the Rev. E. Bickersteth pronounces the annotations to be judicious and full. It is no mean praise of this valuable work that it is in the list of books recommended to clergymen by Bishop Tomline. It is likewise recommended by Gilpin, Drs. E. Williams, Adam Clarke, Doddridge, Horne, and the learned in general.

These two volumes, 1721 folio, may be considered as a library in themselves to any young student. . . . And no such person who takes a fancy to what he there finds, can ever fall into Socinianism, Fanaticism, Popery, or any of those other modern corruptions which infest this church and nation.—Jones's Life of Bishop Horne.
