From the Christian Union.

"SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE fills a distinct place of its own; it is literary in tone in the broadest and best sense; it is high in its standard and admirable in its execution; it is notable even in its excellence. It should be added that there is ample evidence that the coming issues are to increase rather than diminish in merit."

From The Philadelphia Ledger.

"SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE easily and gracefully steps into the very front rank of monthly magazines, and brings its own brilliant excuse for being."

From The London Times.

"SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE is good. The opening article is of especial interest. The short stories are readable, and the serial story, a study of New England farm life, contains a [verbal] picture, grim and powerful enough to stimulate one's expectations for the future."

From "Punch," London.

"SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE shows that its publishers have by no means forgotten their rare skill and admirable taste in mechanical get up and literary value. The initial number contains a great variety of valuable literary work, and we heartily welcome the new comer."
