

Two of the New Suits

WE are going to cause a sensation with our suits this year. We feel it coming. Most of those who have seen them so far have bought on sight. They are not all here yet by any means, but we illustrate two styles that Dame Fashion has set her seal of approval on. Q The price in each case is the same—$16.50. The style you can judge for yourself—the illustration is a careful one.

The first a very smart suit of fine quality West of England worsted, in brown, grey and black tones of stripe effect. Coat is lined with broche, and is made 32 inches long, semi-fitting back, new cutaway front, with three large satin covered buttons, kimono arm-hole, with fold of self over shoulder, two deep vents at sides and one at back, trimmed with satin covered buttons; large new fancy flaps, trimmed with buttons, buttons on sleeves. Skirt is in nine gore flare, buttons down front, satin covered buttons to match coat, trimmed with deep fancy fold of self - 16.50

Misses' Three-piece Suit of imported Panama, in green and navy, new cutaway coat, has stole collar effect, trimmed with satin, finished with silk braid and fancy Persian trimming, two deep vents at back, trimmed with graduated sizes of satin covered buttons, fancy flaps inlaid with satin and finished with one large button. Skirt is in princess style, has pleated gore seams, trimmed around neck with satin, trimmings and braid to match coat. For - - - - - $16.50
