

Oral Roberts goes through hell

By MARK MCGOVERN

Two months ago, evangelist Oral Roberts told millions of television viewers that if he did not raise 4.5 million U.S. by March he would die. According to Roberts, God visited him last year and told him, "If you don't do it, I'm going to call you home in one year.

Now it seems that the humble preacher's efforts to spread the word of God has attracted unwanted attention from more sinister quarters.

Last week on his son's daily religious program, Richard Roberts Live, Oral told assembled faithful that Satan himself had tracked him down to his Oklahoma home, and that the nasty little brute had burst inside uninvited and attacked him. He "put his hands on my throat," said Roberts. "He was choking the life out of me. I yelled to my wife, 'Honey Come!'"

His faithful wife, Evelyn, was alert at the time and rushed quickly to her husband's defense. Apparently she gave Beelzebub a good tongue-lashing and then sent the imp on his proper way.

Oral has found a silver lining in this dark cloud however. Although he refuses to say how much more money he needs, Roberts does expect to raise enough to satisfy God's fiscal demands. "I've been through hell and back," Roberts told viewers. "But on March 31 I expect to be alive--to live!"

Let's just hope so--God only knows how much it would cost us to bring him back.

A DAY OFF?

SO, YOU WANT THE DAY OFF? Let's take a look at what you are asking for.

There are 365 days per year available for work. There are 52 weeks per year in which you already have 2 days off per week, leaving 261 days available for work. Since you spend 16 hours each day away from work you have used up 170 days, leaving only 91 days available. You spend 30 minutes each day on a coffee break, which accounts for 23 days each year, leaving 68 days available. With a 1 hour lunch each day you have used up another 44 days, leaving only 22 days per year on sick leave. This leaves you with only 20 days available for work. We are off for 5 holidays per year, so your available working time is down to 15 days. We generously give you 2 weeks vacation. This leaves only ONE DAY available for work. I'LL BE DAMNED IF YOU'RE GOING TO TAKE THAT DAY OFF!
