Reports indicate that the practise went off very well. A few girls were just returning from their 11.30 leaves at the time and were fully dressed. Other girls were in bed, some asleep.

It is believed that this is the first fire drill they have had at

There has been no word on fire drill at the Men's Residence. All students staying there are instructed on what to do in case of fire. Although the building is quite inflammable, there are two good fire escapes, the doorway is wide and, in extreme cases, the drop from the rooms to the ground is not too high.
