With Cheques

Sir ,-

I beg to say that Mr. Hutchinson recently forwarded to the Department your account of $151.95 for relief supplies furnished to Bathurst Indians. I enclose herewith cheque No. 1075 for $80.00 and cheque No. 396 for $54.00 making a total payment of $134.00 in settlement of your account. With reference to the reduction of $17.95 in the amount of the voucher submitted, I beg to say that this amount covers charges for supplies to Madeline Young from July to October, which supplies were paid for previously, the charges for the same having appeared in an account from you which the Department paid on the 29th December 1914.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Mr. F. T. Frenette,
Merchant,
Bathurst, N. B.
