

engagement so as to be able to see you and the boys, whenever you come down.

Might there not be a chance when the boys have finished their work and before you return to the West, or could you not leave some Saturday? Could they not get some half holiday on a Saturday which would let you spend a week-end.

I am seeking to overcome a mass of correspondence which has been accumulating during the past month, or I would write at greater length.

Please let this communication bring to you all my affectionate love.
