CAMPBELLVILLE.

A thriving post village in the township of Nassagaweya, situated on the sixteen mile Creek at the intersection of the stage road leading from Wellington Square to Guelph, distance from Wellington Square thirteen miles ; from Guelph eighteen miles, and from Milton the County town seven miles. It is surrounded by an excellent agricultural district, and contains two churches, the Canada Presbyterian, a handsome frame building, erected in 1865 at a cost of $1,600 having capacity to seat 250, Rev. James Little minister ; and the Wesleyan Methodist, a frame, built at the same time, Rev. Mr. Blackstock minister. There is considerable manufacturing carried on here ; the large steam saw mill and lath machine of Mr. Smith, conducted by Mr. David Munn, is about the largest in this County, having compliances to cut four millions feet of lumber in the season, and one and half million feet of lath. The woolen mills and factory of Messrs. Davidson & Bros. compare favorably with any other in the County ; the large water flouring and grist mills built of stone in 1857, Mr. George Abrey proprietor have the capacity of turning out 50 barrels of flour daily, he has also a good saw-mill. Messrs. Finlay & McGibbons are each engaged in the lumber manufacturing. There are also two blacksmiths, one wagon maker and two shoemaker shops ; two stores, a large public hall and two hotels. Population about 200.
