

Reviewing the history of the enterprise, and keeping in mind what has been accomplished, often under the most adverse and discouraging circumstances, shareholders can hardly fail to join with the Directors in taking an encouraging view of the future that awaits the Company during the second ten years of its existence.

For the Directors,

WM. C. VAN HORNE,

President.