The Editor Tells Us

That we shall not be allowed to use this space again for some months, and we therefore wish to again remind the many persons who have become interested in

The Temperance and General Life Assurance Company

That it is the Total Abstainers Company; that it is worthy of their fullest confidence; that it is growing rapidly on right lines; that it has an unequalled record with regard to mortality and returns from investments; that, in fact, it is in every respect the Company which should have your confidence and patronage.

The Editor Promises that we shall be allowed to talk to you again in this space after a few months. In the meantime, we ask you not to forget that the T. & G. Life means to be worthy of your fullest confidence at all times, and will be found year by year doing business at the old stand in the Globe Building, Toronto. We shall be glad to answer all inquiries about Life Insurance, and to send copies of Our Advocate to all who ask for them.

HON. G. W. ROSS,
President.

H. SUTHERLAND,
Managing Director
