

PURE-BRED STOCK

NOTES AND NEWS FROM THE BREEDERS

These columns are set apart exclusively for the use of breeders of pure-bred stock and poultry. Any information as to importations made, the sale and purchase of stock and the condition of herds and flocks that is not in the nature of an advertisement will be welcomed. Our desire is to make this the medium for conveying information as to the transfer of pure-bred animals and the condition of herds throughout the country. The co-operation of all breeders is earnestly solicited in making this department as useful and as interesting as possible. The editor reserves the right to eliminate any matter that he may consider better suited to our advertising columns.

The Best Fatted Calf

At the Winnipeg Industrial Exhibition, held last month, The Carnefac Stock Food Co., of that city, donated $175 for the best calves raised on their celebrated stock food. Two of the calves winning these prizes also won first and second in the regular classes. Both pure-bred and grade calves were entered.

The first prize ($100) went to W. J. Hiscock, Arden, Man., for a calf born since January 1st, 1903, and which weighed no less than 775 lbs., the second prize ($50) to G. & W. Bunne, Castleton, for a calf weighing 649 lbs., and the third prize $25 to James Herriot, Souris, for a calf weighing 646 lbs. These were all born since January 1st, 1903, and entered for these prizes were shown by Mr. Allison, of Wambank, calf, weighing 621 lbs., Mr. Benallack, Winnipeg, calf, weighing 585 lbs., Mr. Campbell, of Killarney, calf, 580 lbs., Mr. McLean, Sutherland, calf, 575 lbs., Mr. White, Sutherland, calf, 510 lbs., Mr. Ayerst, Mount Royal, calf, 500 lbs., Mr. Burr, Virden, 445 lbs.; Mr. Waugh, Bird's Hill, calf, 428 lbs., Mr. Hampton, Rapid City, calf, 445 lbs.; Mr. Power, Carberry, 425 lbs.

The Carnefac Company is to be commended for their enterprise. The number of competitors shows the popularity and value of their foods for fitting and fattening young stock for show purposes. Carnefac is a feed for sheep, calves, poultry, horses, cattle and other stock. The company also gave $500 in gold at the Brandon Fair for the best bacon hogs fed on Carnefac.

Rush of Entries at Ottawa

Reports from Ottawa indicate that the buildings this year will be full to overflowing. Applications for space are reaching Secretary McMahon by the hundreds daily. The number of exhibitors promises to be larger than ever before. The live stock and agricultural product entries show that this department will be well filled. The Central Canada show deserves to be largely patronized, and we are pleased to note a large rush of entries this year.

A Contrast

Though summer's smiling skies are hid

By clouds of sombre hue,
Why should I fear cold winter's frown

When Birdie's eyes are blue?

Though summer's whispering breeze is gone,
And wild winds fiercely blow,
Sweetest of music still I hear,
Her voice so soft and low.

Though clouds hang low and winds howl loud

I'll sing the grey days through,
Tis always summer in my heart,
For Birdie's heart is true.
