ROADSTERS.—The sensational Cruickston Park Standard-bred stallion, Mograzia, was missed from the roadster class, having been sent home from Toronto. Instead, Miss Wilks showed Bingen Pilot, winning first in his class, and sweepstakes. Okom Belle, by Moko, first in the three-year-old fillies or geldings, also carries a sweepstakes ribbon to Galt, Moko Bird being rated second in the three-year-old class. Judge Nathan Wade's rat-

SHORTHORNS.—The Manitoba herd of Sir William Van Horne, fresh from its victories at the Canadian National, along with several noted Western Ontario herds, guaranteed a creditable exhibition of the world's most cosmopolitan cattle-breed. Decorations were directed by Robt. Miller, of Stouffville, and Thos. Russell, of Exeter, who improved upon several of Mr. Flatt's Toronto placings, arranging the material before them in a manner that left few, if any, loopholes The Ontario exhibitors represented were W. G. Pettit & Sons, of Freeman; H. K. Fairbairn, of Thedford; T. E. & H. C. Robson, of Ilderton: J. T. Gibson, of Denfield: J. Gard-the class in 1908. Choice of place between the pair of two-year-olds was granted to Gardhouse & Sons' good-handling, roan, home-bred bull, Archer's Senior yearlings were forward to the number of four. Mr. Miller stepped out in this section, leaving the judicial task to his co-worker, who reversed the Toronto decision, by setting Van Horne's smooth, white, Miller-bred bull, His Majesty, by Mistletoe Eclipse, which was third in Toronto, in top place, ahead of Pettit's Toronto second-prize Waterloo Favorite. Fairbairn's Nonpareil Frederick, by Spicy Count, fitted into third. The Freeman herd came to the front in junior yearlings with Limerick, fourth-prize Toronto bull. Beside him was Fairbairn's Rosalind Knight, by Royal Prince, sire of the famous Queen Ideal; third went to Oke's Scottish Rover. Eight senior calves furnished a difficult class to judge. sulted in victory for Gier, with the Toronto thirdprize winner, Royal Duke, the calf which Mr. Flatt had first at Toronto, until the Scotch referee, consulted, sent him down to third. He was followed by Gibson's Clipper Prince 2nd, and Pettit's Waterloo Prince, in third. Pettit won in junior calves. Sweepstakes was creditably contested with the Van Horne herd by Gardhouse's two-yearold, going fittingly, however, to Huntlywood 3rd, with the white senior yearling in reserve. Seven Shorthorn cows mustered such a class as is not often seen at this show. The three Van Horne cows seemed likely to repeat their Toronto triumph by standing first, second and third. The smooth, good, white Spicy's Lady was clearly entitled to first, likewise the red Mina Princess 4th to second, but in between her and the roan, Sunbeam's Queen, Gardhouse's wide, low-set Fairy Fame wedged her way. Oke's cow, which won recent championship at Detroit, was here left unplaced. In common with the other candidates from this herd, she suffered in comparison from lack of fit. The Manitoba herd got another first on Duchess of Sanquhar, exhibited as a cow in The issue of the compemilk for dairy purposes. tition among a trio of two-year-olds was first to Van Horne's red Nonpareil Queen, second to Gardhouse's Rolla's Beauty, and third to Oke's Queen Ideal. Senior yearlings were headed by Pettit's Toronto fourth-prize Rosetta 18th, with Van Horne's first-prize Spicy's Rose relegated to sec-Victoria of Selkirk headed the junior year-A different deal resulted from the shuffle in senior calves, the Selkirk herd getting first on Spicy Princess, second on Spicy's Lady 2nd, with Robson's Spring Grove Butterfly in third, followed by Pettit's Handsome Lady 4th. In Toronto the latter heifer was first. The Ilderton herd led in junior calves, with Fairbairn's Beatrice 4th second, and Oke third. Female sweepstakes and an interesting competition in herds provided still further honors for Prairie stock. Taking it all through, the females decidedly outclassed the bulls, turning out some capital competition not only in the cows, but among the heifer calves. Among the steers, Fairbairn secured first on a firm, smooth calf, by his celebrated stock bull, Royal

ABERDEEN-ANGUS.—Elm Park breeding was conspicuously in evidence among the excellent classes of Doddies contributed by the Ontario herds of J. Bowman, Elm Park, Guelph; James Lowe, Elora: Thos. B. Broadfoot, of Fergus, and J. Buchanan & Son, of Kerwood, the latter's contingent constituting an addition to the Toronto competition. Capt. Robson allotted places with satisfaction to the exhibitors. Lowe's goodbacked Elm Park Ringleader again showed the way to Lord Val 2nd, which he rather excels back a pair, Ladysmith's Lad, by Bob Brown of house & Sons, Highfield; Geo. H. Oke, of Alvin- of the shoulders and chine. The old Elm Park stock bull is a right good one for all that, and has served his owner well, having sired the female complement of a full-graded herd of prizewinners now in the herd, besides many fine cattle in other hands. Third was Buchanan & Son's Elm Park Maynard. Bowman's imported Magnificent stepped up to his place at the head of the two-yearolds, later winning sweepstakes over Lowe's Toronto junior and grand champion yearling bull, Hundred. Choice character, exceptional development for his age, depth and smoothness, characterize this bull, which is saying nothing, either, against the well-grown, straight-topped well-Second two-year-old muscled, capital yearling. was Broadfoot's very creditable Elm Park Ringleader 6th, by Lord Val 2nd. Hundred was seconded in his class by Bowman's Elm Park Mark, reserve champion at Winnipeg. In bull calves, Buchanan & Son walked up to the top, beating the pair sent from Guelph. A couple of cows resulted in honors for the plucky exhibitor from Fergus, on Elm Park Kyma 11th, with second to Buchanan on Elm Park Kyma 14th. Pride of position in 3-year-olds belonged to Bowman's Elm Park Rosebud 4th, first at Winnipeg, Regina, Toronto and London; while first in two-year-olds was the superb Elm Park Beauty 4th, champion at Toronto and London, and first wherever exhibited this year. Broadfoot's Toronto junior champion, Elm Park Mayflower 10th, had to content herself with second in her class this time, first choice falling upon one of Bowman's heifers. She is, nevertheless, a rare good one, and should give a good account of herself if kept going. Broadfoot rose once more in the heifer calves with a prime good one, Balmedie Pride, beaten by Bowman's Elm Park Witch in Toronto, but here turning the tables. Awards:

HEREFORDS.-Whiteface competition narrowed down pretty well to a run between the well-known stock of W. H. Hunter, of The Maples, and Mrs. M. B. Govenlock, of Forest, who, with her young son, a bright lad, in knickerbockers, as head man, had the pluck to fit and forward a herd for exhibition at Toronto and London, winning a very fair share of the prizes. Further competition was furnished in several classes by Wm. Buehler, of Essex, and Thos. Skippon, of Hyde Park. prover and Imperial are the alliterative combination of names of the bulls which showed in the aged class. Hunter had first and second in the yearling bulls, with Buehler reserve. Skippon's entry divided Hunter's two calves. In aged cows, the Forest contingent won first and third, first being Blossom 2nd, a four-year-old, by Imperial, and third, Gem, by Hopeful 18th. Hunter was second in this, as in the next class, where first place was taken by Buehler. Mrs. Govenlock won Gay Lass, and in yearlings vear-olds with with Carlotta, by Prime Lad 32nd. Capt. Robson divided the championships, giving the male honors to Hunter, on Improver, and female sweepstakes to Mrs. Govenlock. Awards follow:

Aged bull—1, Hunter; 2, Mrs. Govenlock. Yearling bull—1 and 2, Hunter; 3, Wm. Buehler, Essex. Bull calf—1 and 3, Hunter; 2, Thomas Skippon, Hyde Park. GALLOWAYS were represented by the single herd of Robt. Shaw, Brantford, who won, of course, all prizes awarded.

DAIRY CATTLE.

AYRSHIRES.-It was a mild duel in Ayrshires between the Toronto Exhibition contingent of Wm. Stewart & Son, Menie, and the other well-known exhibitor, N. Dyment, of Clappison, the names of two or three local men appearing here and there to give variety to the prize-list. Queen's Messenger of Spring Hill had nothing to go against in aged bulls, but won championship later for the Eastern Ontario herd. Dyment had it, likewise, to himself in two-year-olds, with Imp. Milk Record of Haysmuir, and again in yearlings with
