Stirring and Weighty Words

VICE-ADMIRAL SIR DAVID BEATTY, Commander of the First British Battle Cruiser Squadron, whose ships defeated the Germans in the North Sea, has made a stirring appeal for a great religious revival in Britain as a necessary step to victory in the war. In a letter read at the annual meeting of the Society for the Propagation of Christian Knowledge, he writes:—

"Surely Almighty God does not intend this war to be just a hideous fracas. There must be a purpose in it; improvement must come out of it. In what direction? France has already shown us the way and has risen out of her ruined cities with a revival of religion that is wonderful. Russia has been welded into a whole, and religion plays a great part. Britain still remains to be taken out of the stupor of self-satisfaction and complacency into which her flourishing condition has steeped her. Until she can be stirred out of this condition, until a religious revival takes place, just so long will the war continue."

"When she can look on the future with humbler eyes and a prayer on her lips, then we can begin to count the days towards the end. Your society is helping to this end, and so is helping to bring the war to a successful end."
