

A Message to Men

WHO ARE WEAK AND AILING

The failure of medicine, of quacks, and even of other so-called electric belts is no argument against Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt. No other treatment, no other belt, is in the same class with it. Everything else may fail, but Dr. McLaughlin's Belt will cure. It HAS cured thousands who tried other remedies without success.

This is a message to men. It is to men who want to feel like men, to look like men and act like men. This is to men who lack courage, whose nerves are shaken, whose brains are muddled, ideas confused, sleep restless, confidence gone, spirits low and easily depressed, who are backward, hesitating, unable to venture because they are afraid of failure, who want somebody to decide for them, who are weak, puny and restless. It is to men who have part or all of those symptoms and want new life, new force, new vigor.

DR. McLAUGHLIN'S ELECTRIC BELT

is no longer an experiment. It is hailed by thousands with loud praise because it has cured them. "It cured me. I am well and strong as ever. What more could one ask?" writes a man with a heart full of gratitude.

Do not be in error. This grand appliance is like no other. It is new. It has all the good points that are known in electricity. It gives a powerful current, but does not burn or blister, because my special cushion electrodes make the current a warm, gentle glow, which exhilarates and relieves at once.

Dear Sir,—I am fully satisfied with the result of your Belt. It is fully as good as you claim. It has made a new man of me. I have gained both weight and strength. Every word turned out to be true. I could not believe at first myself that your Belt was as good as it is. My friends tried to make me believe that your Belt was no good, but I was strong-headed and got your Belt. After wearing it for seven weeks I knew that the Belt was good, and in two months' time I was completely cured. Now all my friends believe in the Belt, but none stronger than I do. I have recommended your Belt far and wide.—ALEX. McDONALD, Dunmore, N.S.

Dear Sir,—I have great pleasure in writing to you to say that, after a fair trial of your Belt, it has accomplished wonders in so short a time. The indigestion is gone and I can eat a good, hearty meal now (what I have not done for a long time), and the pain in my back is about gone. In fact, I feel like a new man, and will say that I am well satisfied with my bargain.—JOHN BEATTIE, Mina, Ont.

Dear Sir,—You will excuse me for not writing before, but I was in the lumber woods, and did not return until this month. Yes, sir, my back is all right. It is better and stronger now than it has been for thirty years. It is a permanent cure. My head don't bother me; nerves are strong; I am better all over. You can use my name to certify that your Belt is all you claim for it.—GEORGE STANLEY, Perth, Victoria Co.

"My case has certainly been a very serious one, and one of long standing. I had latterly and so long been unable to do any work at all. Your Belt has worked wonders in my case, as I am working steady now. It is well known here that it is your Belt that has put me on my feet again, and no doubt will be the cause of other sales for you.—WILLIAM J. RYERS, Nipissing, Ont.

"Your Belt has certainly done me a great deal of good in every way, and I shall always recommend your Belt to any one I know that is in need of it." ROBERT DICK, Kimberley, Que.

"I write to let you know that my health is very good. My back is about cured. The benefit I received from the Belt is well worth the price I paid for it. The advice alone is worth the money twice over. My friends tell me that I am looking fine. I tell them I don't know whether I am looking fine or not, but I can tell them I am feeling more than fine. I shall speak well of what you have done for me with your Belt and advice. Wishing you every success, I remain, yours very truly, W. H. BELDING, Chance Harbor, N.B."

I know no better way to prove my confidence in the wonderful curative power of my Belt than to cure you before I ask my pay. Can anything be fairer than that?

My confidence in my method enables me to offer the Belt on trial, and one who can offer me reasonable security can use my Belt at my risk and

PAY WHEN CURED

Every weak man wants to feel young again! To realize the joyful sparkle of nerve life as it infuses the body with its glowing vitality; to feel the magnetic enthusiasm of youthful energy; to be happy, light-hearted and full of joyous impulses; to be free from spells of despondency, from brain wandering, from the dull, stupid feeling; to have confidence, self-esteem and the admiration of men and women! Such is the wish of the broken-down man, and it may be gratified.

I have a nicely illustrated book which every man should read. I will send it, closely sealed, FREE.

FREE BOOK. If you cannot call, then fill out this Coupon, mail it to me, and I will mail you free, sealed and in plain envelope, by Book, which contains many things you should know, besides describing and giving the price of the appliance and numerous testimonials. Business transacted by mail or at offices only. No agents. Now, if you suffer, do not lay this aside and say you will try it later. Act to-day—NOW.

Mrs. Langtry said of the unpleasant and impertinent questions that under the new customs rules had been put to her on her landing in America: "They reminded me of that lawyer's bill which is sometimes quoted to show what a lawyer, at his worst, can be. I don't remember all the bill's items, but two of them were:

"To waking up in the night and thinking about your case, $7.50.
"To dining with my lawyer, the case was lost, $8."

TO CROW OR NOT TO CROW.
I sometimes think I shall crow,
And be a rooster, and be a crow,
And be a crow, and be a crow,
A rooster, he can crow, and I can crow,
Which don't seem to be a crow,
Which don't seem to be a crow,
Which don't seem to be a crow.

Crows will crow for one thing though
Not a word of eating crow,
While they are good enough to crow,
If they are less they're tough,
There's a tough old rooster,
Who can't crow,
