

April 9. The concert will be held in the Market Hall, where it is so that the performance was as satisfactory a manner as in the Vancouver Opera House. The section of Prof. Gregory the has been carefully rehearsed the chorus and orchestra are well up in their parts. Recently decided to admit a new membership now exceeds 700, the best local talent. The performance forward to with keen belief it will even surpass the "Athalia" given earlier in seats for the Carleton company begins next week at the large. The company will perform at night (Thursday) Dorset; Saturday matinee, Chimer; Saturday night Fra Diavolo recently appeared in Winnipeg on of the engagement the audience was not so much in the early part of the evening as in the fuller work at the close, which only the influence of the building prevented the audience from vigorously encoring. It was without doubt an excellent piece of choral work. There was also an excellently rendered quartette by Mrs. McCandless, Mrs. Hickaby, Mr. J. G. Brown and Mr. Hobbs. The "Pastoral Symphony," by the organist, Mr. Fisher, was also listened to with a good deal of pleasure, and Mrs. McCandless' rendering of "Nearer My God to Thee" (which was given by request) was well worth hearing.
