

/CO

"The Hebrew word for trust signifies to twine round, to cling to; it is the word that is used to express the action of those plants that put out tendrils and support themselves on something firm and strong. . . . May we both cling fast to Christ, let the tendrils of our hearts twine round Him, and He will hold us up, for we cannot support ourselves."—Extract from Letter.