CAMP ALPERSHOT

The Camp at Aldershot this year McCosh for corps.

The 66 regiment from Haiifax was in camp the shortest time leaving for home yesterday.

The health of the men has been good, the work accomplished shows an advance over previous years and the rations served were never as good.

Yesterday the rain prevented many from attending the grounds and witnessing the regular review and march past.

On Wednesday a large body of the troops were scouting along the Gaspereau Valley some going via Wolfville and others by the way of White Rock.

The work in the Y. M. C. A. Building has been a special feature of camp life. Gipsey Simon Smith was present to hold Evangelistic services and every night the building was crowded with eager listeners.

The work on the rifle range this year has been superior to that of any former year.

The men have been either more orderly than usual or have been under better discipline as with such a large camp there have been practically little complaints of the grounds.

While he only spent a fortnight and his strength would not allow him to spend much of it in fravel after he arrived in London yet he was much impressed with what he saw in the Old County and looks forward to an other more extended trip.
