We have in the Reporter office a good Model Press, 5 x 8 inches inside chase, nearly as good as new, which we had to sell for our own use. This press will make 1,200 impressions on both sides. Also about 100 Fonts of Job Type, in Excellent Condition.

W. F. EARL.
The type and press will be sold at less than half original cost, as we are about putting in a new power press, and have no further use for either the press or the type. Proof sheets of type will be sent on application, and also samples of the work done on the press. Some extra printing done in a country village could make money by purchasing an outfit from us, as we can supply all the requisites for such a business at greatly reduced prices. Write for particulars.

THE REPORTER'S CIRCULATION.
The number of Reporters Circulated last week was 723.
These are the total of the number supplied to regular subscribers and the number sold over the counter. There is no secret about our circulation, and we are glad to verify these figures may inspect our books.

THE REPORTER
FARMERSVILLE, OCT. 23, 1888.

LOCAL SUMMARY.
FARMERSVILLE AND NEIGHBORHOOD BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen.
Miss Vira Bishop, of Brockville, is visiting friends in Addison.
There have been some heavy frosts in this section during the past week.
A good second hand heavy spring wagon for sale. Apply at this office.
A Parish & Son evidently intend making fall trade rather lively. They are showing prices away down.
A lady temperance lecturer will preach in the Methodist Church the first Sunday in November.
The Dairyman's Association of Eastern Ontario will meet at Smith's Falls in January.

The authorities of the Methodist church at Merrickville have abolished the pew renting system.
The District Convention of Y. M. C. A. will be held at Gananoque from November 2 to 4.
Biscuit makers have raised 23 boxes to 24, wholesale. A Parish & Son retail them at that price.
Messrs. Crossley and Bates, the evangelists, are conducting successful revival meetings in Brockville.
Physicians are about adopting the plan of publishing a list of the dead heads who do not pay their bills.
We understand that until further notice the trains on the B. and W. will not leave Brockville until 4 p.m.
The Brockville bakers put bread up to 16 cents the four pound loaf. The result: a new bakery, and bread down to 12 cents.

Mrs. M. Stowell, who has been appointed telegraph operator at Farmersville station, commenced her duties last week.
Sugar prices reduced at A. Parish & Son's to 16 lbs for a dollar—12 lbs graduated.
The remains of the late Dr. A. Imerson, a native of this county, who recently died at Chateaufort, N. Y., were conveyed to Phillipsville for interment.
Geo. Boyce, son of Mr. Stephen Boyce of this village, has been very low for the past week with typhoid fever. At last accounts he was slightly better.
Mr. R. D. Judson is selling a number of the Osborn sally ploughs, manufactured by J. H. Gould, Smith Falls. The implement is a great saver of horse flesh.
Miss Mimie Taplin left for Toronto on Wednesday last, where she intends staying a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Marshall, who was residing in Farmersville a short time ago.
Alex. Compo, jr., who has been in the employ of J. F. Gordon for the past two years, last week for Mo. messrs. Ill, where he has obtained a position in a store with his brother.
The general rule is that when the thermometer has a downward tendency the price of coal shows a corresponding upward movement. But in Farmersville just now the rule works contrary to nature, the breaking of the coal "combine" having resulted in lower prices for black diamonds.

"This said that a prominent citizen of Lake Street, Plum Hollow, fell into the (female) hands of the Philistines of Cotton Row, Lansdowne St. a short time ago. Although there were no bones broken in the matter, it was surprising to notice how the fire showed along and broom flew around the room in search of the oily tongued disciple of Slippery Dan.
The man who forgot to get off the train here on Sunday night, found his services in great demand between Newboro and Westport, in carrying rails from a farmer's fence and breaking them up with a stone hatchet, in order to provide fuel to induce the destination. It is said that Westport was not reached until well up in the wee sma' hours.
Our new coal oil tank and pump works so well that it is fun to run. Best Silver Star Oil, 15c. A. Parnett & Son.
About eleven o'clock on Wednesday night last the barn of Mr. D. B. Tennant, of Caintown, was discovered to be on fire. The flames spread with amazing rapidity, and in a short time two barns and other outbuildings were totally destroyed, together with hay and grain crops, implements, harness, etc., stored in them. The loss is estimated at $25,000; insurance, $10,000. An old blind horse, a pet of the family, was burned. It is supposed that the fire was of incendiary origin.
Through an error in the judges' reports at Unionville Fair, the special prize of $5, given by Mr. Hervey for best 20 pounds of crock butter, was announced to have been taken by Abel Scott, but the exhibitor who really received it was Hugh S. Holmes. Mr. Holmes also took the special prize of a caddy of tea given by Mr. John Gilbert, for best ten pounds of roll butter, and the special prize of $8 given by John F. Wood, M. P., for best 20 pounds of crock butter.
The B. & W. ran a special train to Brockville on Sunday, for the accommodation of those who wished to attend the funeral of H. A. Fields, H. B. Wright and Herbert Shepherd, victims of the yachting disaster, whose bodies were recovered on Thursday and Friday last. The service was conducted in Trinity Church, and held before the appointed hour the interior of the sacred edifice and all the vacant spaces in the vicinity of the church, were filled with a dense mass of sympathizing spectators, estimated to number 5,000. Such a funeral was never before seen in Brockville. The procession was two miles long, and was escorted by a large number of Freemasons and Oddfellows, representing over a score of Lodges. Messrs. Stevens Bros. and Mr. R. D. Judson, of Farmersville, were present with their hearse, and assisted Mr. McEwen in directing the obsequies.
Wm. Scott, lately of Innesburg, is a watchmaking and jewelry dealer this week. Mr. Scott will be in Messrs. Moles & Ack-land's grocery. We understand he is a skilled workman and has had a wide experience in the watch and jewelry business.

The Provincial Sunday School Convention held at Kingston last week, was a great success. The delegates from Brockville were: A. M. McGillicray and Mrs. McGillicray, Mr. T. R. Hay, Mrs. J. J. Bell and Miss Minnie Hutcheson. Eastern's Corners was represented by Mr. W. H. Easton.

CORRESPONDENCE.
An Indignant Reply to "Observer."
EDITOR FARMERSVILLE REPORTER:
DEAR SIR,—I am becoming more cognizant every day of the marvellous usefulness of the local press. It gives us extracts from the latest popular sermons, publishes our political oratory, and advertises our church fairs, socials, concerts, etc.; it takes notice of all the lectures, races, excursions, baseball and lacrosse matches and horse races; it announces all the births, marriages and deaths; it moralizes upon thefts, burglaries and murders; it discusses the general social, political and religious outlook—in short, it acts as a useful ventilator of all local sensations, public horrors, and gives needed information for all classes. And after the career of such a paper as a public educator and general informant is past, its usefulness is not yet ended. How often we find it passing beneath the scissors of the pattern maker and for future usefulness; or it may even serve to tie up some poor man's lunch. And not infrequently, in its later stages of usefulness, when manipulated by the deft hands of some talented (?) young lady, has it been constructed into an ornamental (?) appendage, to give finish and contour to the posterior of her graceful person. Even after all this, when it is sold and whittled down to lower forms of usefulness, to light the fire on cold winter mornings. What a pity such a useful article should ever be put to rest, and unwisely, to base purposes. And yet the editor cannot always know—of course he cannot—what spirit inspires the local items. Somewhere away down low on the steps of this long ladder of usefulness, if not at the very bottom, is a service to which the local paper descends, which doubtless gives satisfaction to a very small class who as a rule can get very little sympathy from the general press. This class is largely made up of fond but foolish mothers, who have signally failed at home to make good boys out of their wayward sons, and so, after sending them to school for the "pulsant school marm" to try her hand upon them. Then, of course, it is to be understood that their "long-haired" boys are not to be brought to the school upside down. If, in the legal and proper discharge of her duty, the "school marm" makes them "lose the mark," of course there is a howl in the houses of the little miscreants. When the neighbors and trustees will not suddenly sympathize with the howlers, they, in bearing a retreat, often remind one of the act of the ill-fated production from September 1st is held by factorymen. The cable remains unchanged at 50s. The exports show 21,000 boxes more than the corresponding date of 1887.

THE CHEESE MARKETS.
Special to Reporters.
BROCKVILLE, Oct. 23.—There is little new in the features of the market. On the whole a fairly firm tone has been maintained, although, as might be expected after the rampant buoyancy superinduced by the anxious desire of the bears to cover their sales, the sharp edge of the market has been somewhat dulled. The general tone, however, has a healthy look, and holders of fine goods feel confident. The make ast of Toronto, practically speaking, has passed into dealers' hands at low prices, but west of the line the production from September 1st is held by factorymen. The cable remains unchanged at 50s. The exports show 21,000 boxes more than the corresponding date of 1887.
