

WOLFVILLE BOY ON MCGILL RUGBY TEAM

The McGill English Rugby team defeated the Montreal English Rugby team on Nov. 7th, by the score of 18 to 7 and became the champions of the city. In the previous week they won the intercollegiate championship. One of the best players on the McGill team is Murray Beardsley of this town. The McGill Daily describes the game of Nov. 7th in part as follows:

The showing of the McGill backs was largely responsible for the victory of the team. Bradshaw, Beardsley and "Sandy" Macintosh, handling the pigskin in the best approved style, notwithstanding the fact that it was a difficult matter to hold onto it at any time. The college team was rather lighter than their opponents on the forward line and the Montreal team showed good work in getting the ball out of the scrimmage on several occasions.

Several former wearers of the Red and White were playing with the Montreal team and the contest was an affair of the most friendly nature. Several of the players had been with McGill last season and they had a very good idea of the sort of plays that were used.

Colville and Lane, both former McGill men, made a brilliant showing for the losers, the latter making a pretty kick for a goal. Buchanan and Conington were the best of the visitors' forwards, but were handicapped in their attempts to carry the ball by the fact that it was very wet. Notwithstanding this fact however, their showing on the line was the equal, if not better than that of the McGill squad.

The Montreal forwards opened up the contest with a strong offensive against McGill team and they soon had them on the defensive with the line in danger of being crossed. With things looking pretty gloomy for a few minutes, the McGill three-quarter line came to the rescue and very soon had turned the tables on the visitors by backing them down the field. Bradshaw made a flashy run down the field with the pigskin and soon afterwards McIntosh got across the line for the first try. Kemp converted.

A second try came for the college team shortly afterward. Beardsley secured the ball himself and by an entirely individual effort succeeded in carrying it across the line. Kemp's educated toe once again sent the ball sailing over the uprights to convert a try for the second time.

Following closely on McGill's scores the Montreal team resumed the offensive with a rush and soon had McGill holding on to try and keep them from walking off with the game. Some clever work by the forwards resulted in the ball going over McGill line for a try and Lane followed shortly afterwards with a drop kick that was successful in adding to the city team's collection of points. A penalty for an offside gave the Montreal fullback a further opportunity to score and McGill began to look up.

A series of rapid passes between Beardsley and McIntosh took the ball back down the field in short order and it was got over the line for the third time. When it was converted McGill had too substantial a lead to be overcome in the short time remaining.

WILL BE BURIED IN CANADA WITH HONORS

TORONTO, Nov. 15.—Albert Miller, the Canadian war Veteran who was chosen to carry the "cease fire" order from British headquarters to the Canadian forces at Mons, and who died in Buffalo on Armistice Day, last week, will be buried with military honors in the military section of Prospect cemetery in this city, according to a telegram received yesterday by Major General V. A. S. Williams from Hon. Hugh Guthrie, minister of militia. The expense and interment will be borne by the Dominion government.

PRICE OF HAM AND BACON TO DECREASE

OTTAWA, Nov. 15.—A downward tendency in the price of cooked hams and bacon has been in evidence in the Ottawa wholesale provisions market in the last few days, and a reduction of two to three cents a pound to the trade has been made. Cooked ham is now selling wholesale at 38 cents to 42 cents a pound, and breakfast bacon from 24 to 28 cents.

The retail prices have not yet responded to any appreciable extent but a slight decrease in prices is expected as new stock is acquired at lower prices.

Sports on the Pacific Coast

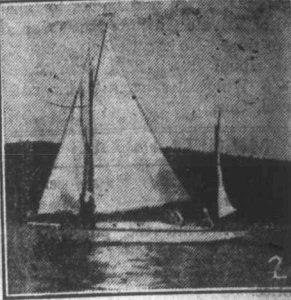

Surely there is no centre in the world where one can get such a variety of summer sports as in Vancouver, B.C. There are several excellent beaches for bathing, there are half a dozen different lots of public tennis-courts within the city limits; there are several golf-courses, baseball and lacrosse, a polo-ground out at Brighouse Park where recently the Vancouver team played teams from Kamloops and Calgary.

Saturday afternoon nearly always finds a couple of cricket matches being played at the beautiful grounds down at Brockton Point.

But the most popular of all amusements in Vancouver are motor-launching and yachting. The harbor down by the Yacht-club is dotted with pleasure boats of every size and build; motor-power boats from the little row-boat with an outboard motor fixed inside it right up the scale to the beautiful new launch from Seattle, 110 ft., built originally for a submarine chaser.

All the sailing boats turn out for the regattas held at various points along the coast. There are 16 "kitten," 15 foot boats of the "Cat boat" class, the "Sir Tom" and the "Spirit" of the "T" class, the "Minerva," a 60 ft. yawl, the "Patricia," built specially for the Lipton Cup between Vancouver and Seattle, and the only boat on the Pacific Coast that has the Marconi rig.

But these are only a few of the hundreds of boats that dot the blue waters of Burrard Inlet or the more adventurous seas outside on a summer's afternoon.

INDUSTRY

I love to work, except when summer's here
And there's a dull, lethargic atmosphere.
And well, of course, when summer turns to fall
The hunting fever holds me in its thrall
And I don't get much labor done, I fear.
Winter, I find, when it is cold and clear,
Brings many sports and pleasure I hold dear.
It's not a time, when, take it all in all,
I love to work.

Spring, when the buds and blossoms first appear
And songs of little birds soothe the ear,
Makes life seem dull within an office wall
And so I loaf in answer to its call.
But, save for these four seasons of the year,
I love to work!

—Berton Braley.

REV. WM. AINLEY DIED AT HALIFAX

(From Halifax Chronicle.)

The death occurred suddenly at Dr. Mader's Hospital Sunday of the Rev. William Ainley, who came to the city but a week ago from Canning to attend the Golden Jubilee of the Wesley Smith Memorial church. He was stricken on Tuesday last and removed to the hospital but the best medical skill and attendance proved futile. The deceased, who was 73 years of age, is survived by his wife, who accompanied him to the city, and one son, D. R. Ainley, of Vancouver. The body was forwarded to his home in Canning Monday morning, accompanied by his widow and Rev. Mr. Bartlett, of the Wesley Smith Memorial church.

Rev. Mr. Bartlett presided at an impressive service at the church Sunday night, when the remains of the deceased minister were borne into the church by the stewards, who acted as pall-bearers. Assisting Mr. Bartlett were Rev. Dr. Bond, Rev. Mr. McArthur, Rev. Dr. Johnson, of Truro; Rev. William Brown, Rev. Dr. Wigle and Rev. E. E. Graham. All the clergymen delivered short addresses, testifying to the worth and esteem in which the deceased minister was held. The male quartette rendered two selections impressively, "Peace, Perfect Peace," and the congregation was led in singing by the choir. At the close of the service the congregation stood while the organist played the Dead March in Saul.

The last sermon preached by Rev. Mr. Ainley was on Monday night last week, when he spoke on the Supremacy of Christ in the work of the Church.
