Dear Sit, I premised a line to several friends on leaving Medicine Hat Nov. 8th, regarding how stock arrived etc., at the lairages in England, so here it is. Left Dunmore Junction Nov. 8th, reached Winnipeg 9 a.m., Nov. 10th, fed the stock in stock yards for three days, nad all the hay and water they could eat and drink. Saw Mr. Patterson there, the old time rancher and brand inspector. He appeared to be very much on the alert, and should there be any old-time lifter left, I advise him to turn from his evil ways, as this is a danger and should the sould be alert, and should there be any old-time lifter left, I advise him to turn from his evil ways, as this is a danger and should the sould be alert, and should the sould be alert, and should there be any old-time lifter left, I advise him to turn from his evil ways, as this is a danger and should the sould be alert.
