A Month's Progress of Yesterday's—How's the Weather Disposed.

It is now stated that the Fredericton railway will be opened on the 15th, the first regular train coming from Quebec to Fredericton on that day. It is proposed to run the excursion from Fredericton to Quebec on the new route a few days afterwards, and a number of business men talk of making the trip.

To Quebec by the New Route.

The Fredericton Concert Company will appear in the City Hall this evening. No admission fee to be charged, but a silver collection will be taken. The object of the concert is to organize a musical convention to last four or five days, with a view to building up church choir and giving an impetus to musical singing, etc.

A Fine Team.

Mr. Timothy Lynch is the owner of one of the finest teams of matched chestnuts horses within a long distance of Fredericton. He purchased them down river the other day. They are large, well formed and handsome looking animals, and are pronounced to be the best horses to be seen on the most valuable horses in the city.

Police Today.

The members of the Fredericton, St. John's and other police forces are on duty today. The Fredericton force is on duty from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. The St. John's force is on duty from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. The other police forces are on duty from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Deaths at New Brunswick.

The Young People's Union in connection with the Baptist Church are making arrangements for a picnic to take place on Thursday on the beautiful grounds of Oak Ridge at New Brunswick. The ferry boat Sarah E. will make three trips on the grounds during the day, leaving the market square at 1.30, 4 and 6.30 o'clock. There will be the usual sports in the afternoon. A hand will be on the ground.

The Murder Examination.

The examination of the three men, charged with the murder of Mrs. Howe, was resumed at Andover this morning. In the absence of Mr. George F. Gregory, who has been called away to the Northumberland circuit, Mr. Alex. Stanger, defending the prisoners, Mr. Thos. Lawson appearing for the crown. It is expected that the examination will close in a day or two. The trial opens on the 25th inst.

A Record Made at West.

Mr. Joseph Smith, of St. Mary, is a crack shot. He made a record for himself yesterday, firing the record of the flock of thirteen ducks put in an appearance on the river opposite the city and attracted his attention. It was not long before he appeared on the scene with his gun, and before he stopped firing, he had shot and taken all of the thirteen birds. The record was taken from the remaining four. This gives Joe a record victory.

Tobacco Valley Mailbox.

Mr. John A. Stewart, who has been awarded the contract for the construction of a portion of the Tobacco Valley Railway, advises in today's issue for 500 men to commence work on the route tomorrow. Mr. Stewart was out to Andover yesterday. He has about 50 men at work clearing and getting things in readiness for the construction work. The 15th inst. will be worked on Wednesday, the 16th inst. the work will then proceed without delay.

The Summer Season Over.

The visitors at the provincial summer resorts have nearly all left for their homes, and the season is about over. The Loch Arna hotel at Dalhousie, where Mr. Harry Fisher, who has made many friends as clerk of the beach, returned home this morning. He reports a big run at the beach during the season, but says that the unusually cold weather proved a drawback, preventing many from coming and causing others to shorten their visit considerably.

Maritime Press Association.

The first annual meeting of the Maritime Press Association will be held at Moncton, commencing at 3 p. m. on Tuesday, the 18th inst. At the conclusion of the session it is expected that the association will go on an excursion from Moncton to Chatham, over the International railway; thence to the Maritime and Western, and over the New Brunswick railway to Grand Falls; thence to Woodstock or Fredericton, and down the river to St. John, whence members will return to their respective homes.

Seriously Injured by a Horse.

Sergeant Vaudin, learned, Saturday evening, through a letter from Glasgow, Ontario, Co., that his stepson, Mr. J. H. Bridge, well known in the vicinity of Fredericton, was seriously injured by a horse on his horse the other day, having a very narrow escape from being killed. Mr. Bridge was in the stall harnessing the animal, when it suddenly began kicking and leaped him against the side of the stall, striking him badly about the legs and breast. The letter stated that it was only the timely assistance of a neighbor that prevented the horse from killing Mr. Bridge.

St. J. of Op. Special Meeting.

The St. J. of Op. Special Meeting of the Temperance Society, held their regular monthly open council meeting in the Temperance Hall last evening. The hall was crowded, many being unable to secure seats. An excellent musical programme, consisting of solo, duet, quartet, etc., was rendered, a visiting solo by Mr. Robert Rose being one of the most taking features of the evening. Addresses were delivered by Mr. W. T. L. Bond, C. O., and by Mr. McCreed. At the conclusion of the address Mr. Ohas. J. A. Johnston extended a welcome to the visiting administration is desirable by a gentleman whose support will not be unavailing. It was good to see Mr. Bond here and under consideration for a week past. A resolution was passed to the effect that the St. J. of Op. be held on the 15th inst. at 8 p. m. Mr. Johnston is favored by the local government, and the Temperance Society is in its endeavor to his candidature.
