to be filed. Votes of thanks from the parishioners were made and recorded to several persons who had made generous gifts and donations to the siterations. The meeting was largely attended and was characterized by the best of feeling. The only regrettable circumstance connected with the proceedings was the retirement, on account of ill health of Mr. David Chapman from the office of church Warden, a responsible position that he had honourably filled for the long term of twenty one years. On motion of Hon. D. L. Hanington seconded by John Hickman Esq., and spoken to feelingly by the chair, the motion was passed by an unamimous standing vote—a generous an unamimous standing vote—a generous tribute to long and frithful services which Mr. Chapman acknowledged very happily.

The services during the Holy weel are leavely attended than the were more largely attended than they have ever been; and on .Easter day large congregations took part in and heartily enjoyed the services which were partic-ularly bright and cheering.

Westmorland, Mr. McQueen, made another maiden debut at the gospel temperance meeting on Sunday last, and spoke of the healthy temperance sentiment prevailing in Fredericton. His advice to young people was concise, manly and practicable. Messrs Hanington, Palmer, Colter, and Burchill also occupied seats on the platfage.
