

FIVE STEAMERS LOST TO GERMANY

Seriousness of War Situation

The Collapse of Russia Expected to Release Additional German Troops to Bolster Up the Western Front--Hope of a Short Struggle Gone in U. S.

Washington, July 26.—No attempt is made here to minimize the seriousness of the situation in the war theater in Europe. The United States is in the war and will go through with it; but any hope of a short struggle has gone glimmering with the apparent almost complete collapse of the Russian war machine.

The development was not unexpected by many army officers. When the offensive of July 1 was started by the Russians, the most frequent comment heard here was that it was probably the dying kick of the old Russian machine. Most observers were frankly skeptical that it could produce any decided result.

For the United States the Russian collapse may have an immediate and direct bearing. It will, if the German general staff presses its advantage, release additional German forces to bolster up the western front, where American troops are to be engaged. The German line in the west has not been seriously impaired at any point, officers here believe. They do not claim to know specifically the situation all along the battlefield, but they are unable to see that the British and French have wrested from the Germans any key position of such importance that it can be used next year to hurl the enemy back toward the Rhine.

It has been noted, in fact, that the one strategic advantage gained in recent fighting was gained by the Germans. Many officers here believe that when a small sector of the British in Belgium was overwhelmed and its defenders nearly all captured or killed the Germans improved the situation on the western front materially. That view is based on opinion, that the only hope of decisive attainments for the Allies in the west lies in rolling up the German right flank, where it reaches the sea in Belgium. It that could be done it is argued that the T-bomb bases could be stamped out and the only offensive instrument of the Germans be eliminated entirely or so seriously impaired as to make it ineffective.

PEJEPSCOT CO. TO CUT 3,500,000 FT.

American Lumber Market Dull at Present, But Condition is Only Temporary.

St. John Standard — That his company would cut in the vicinity of 3,500,000 feet of lumber at their improved plant at Great Calmon River, St. John County, was the statement made by J. A. B. Cowles, head of the Pejepscot Lumber Company. Mr. Cowles, who is a guest at the Royal Hotel, had just returned from his monthly inspection of the company's business in this county.

He said that the company's mill at Martin Head was not being operated at the present time and intimated that further improvements were likely to both plants. "The mills are up to date as any other lumbering plants in eastern Canada."

Mr. Cowles, replying to an inquiry as to the condition of the American market at the present time, said that operators considered it quite flat and comparatively few sales were being made. He said that he felt this condition would be only temporary and looked for more activity in the early future.

It's About the Red Letter Edition of the Bible

Although the time limit on The Gleaner's distribution of these books expired Saturday, July 14, it was the original intention to fill all orders received up until July 17th. The stock was not equal to the demand and there are still a number of orders unfilled. Within the next ten days it is hoped a sufficient number can be obtained from various sources to fill the orders now on hand. In the meantime should anyone wish to have their money returned advise and same will be done. We take it for granted, however, that those sending in the orders would sooner have this great book value than have their money returned.

The German Vote in the West A Real Danger to Dominion

Col. J. A. Currie of North Simcoe, Enters a Vigorous Protest Against Allowing a German Vote at the Coming Elections—The Income Tax Measure.

Ottawa, July 26.—At the opening of the Commons today Sir Thomas White introduced a bill based upon the resolution adopted yesterday providing for the imposition of a federal income tax. The bill was given first reading without discussion. When a second reading is taken up there will be further discussion of the principle of the bill and its details will then be considered by the committee. At that stage more detailed announcements will be made as to the machinery to be instituted for the collection of the taxes and the penalties to be provided for failure on the part of anybody to make proper statements as to income to the Government.

Hon. J. W. Roche, Minister of the Interior, then moved the House into committee to consider the details of his act to amend the Dominion Land Act. The bill provides for a considerable number of changes in the administration of the act, many of them of a technical character.

The Tipton Vote.

During the discussion of the bill in committee the fact developed that a number of Germans and Austrians in the West had been naturalized and had received patents for their homesteads during the war. They were men who had made their homestead entries before the war commenced, and last December an order-in-council was passed prohibiting alien enemies from making homestead entries. Col. John A. Currie (North Simcoe) took advantage of the occasion to enter a vigorous protest against allowing "a Hun vote" at the coming election and to severely criticize the movement to form a union Government. Col. Currie said it was an outrage to permit alien enemies in the West to take out naturalization papers and secure homesteads when they were organizing to defeat this Government and every member of parliament they could reach who favored carrying on the war. These men, who were of military age, would be in the trenches today killing our Canadian boys at the front if they could get ships to carry them back.

Vehemently Objected.

In behalf of the Canadians at the front he vehemently objected to politicians pandering to the enemy alien vote in the West. He was quite as willing to fight a German reservist in Canada as in Flanders. These alien enemies had no rights in this country except the rights accorded them by humanity. The Germans today were impugning Hon. Dr. Beland, simply and solely because he was a Canadian. They were not presenting him with a farm, or asking him to take charge of their Government.

The acts of the Kaiser, Col. Currie said, were coloring constitencies in the West, and they intended to have thirty or forty members in the next House who would see that this country pulled out of the war. Some Liberal members were posing as bricklayers by voting for conscription, but they were pandering to pro-Germans in western Canada. A mysterious movement was on foot to destroy the Conservative party and to give dominance to the alien enemies. It had for its purpose the formation of a union Government, but it had subsidized many newspapers, and had put the soft pedal on any agitation to disfranchise alien enemies. There was a lot of money behind this movement, and wherever the money came from it certainly was not British gold. The British Government was not spending money to keep the Germans and Austrians from being disfranchised in Canada.

Hits English Candidates.

Col. Currie said he had more respect for a French-Canadian who opposed conscription than he had for the English-Canadian who voted for conscription, but looked for his own election to the favor of alien enemies. These men were like the Blackfeet Indians, who turned their snowshoes as to give the impression that they were going in one direction when they were really going in the other. He singled out Mr. Turritt of Assiniboia as one of the tricksters who was voting for conscription but relying on pro-Germanism for re-election. The soldiers at the front, he said, would give the impression of a very politician, who pampered and pandered to our alien enemies in the West.

Mr. Turritt (Assiniboia) objected to being lectured. He said he had many German constituents who were fighting in the trenches.

Col. Currie: "That is both. If any Germans are sent by Canada to England as recruits they are detained there at sea; they are not allowed within miles of the trenches, except in very exceptional cases."

Mr. Turritt said Germans and Austrians had come here before the war with the understanding that they could be naturalized and receive lands. He would be glad to see a bill that would go back on our agreement.

Hon. Dr. Roche, who was in charge of the bill, suggested that the committee arise and report progress, and this closed the discussion.

SHUT OFF LIQUOR FROM QUEBEC

Ottawa, July 26.—The Government will introduce this session some amendments to the Deberry bill of last session in aid of the provincial prohibitory legislation, but there will be no Dominion-wide prohibition to be taken at the same time as the general election. The amendments to the Deberry bill will be of a very drastic character, but will be designed in the main to restore the clauses thrown out in the Senate last session relating to precautions for infringement of the provincial laws and to make a few other changes facilitating the carrying out of the full intent of the provincial legislation.

In the recent far eastern athletic games held in Toledo the sprinters were largely equipped with more or less modern track pumps, although some of them went to the starting post wearing "anklers." The distance runners were invariably equipped with soft footwear. Some of them ran barefooted and others seemingly wore heavy socks.

SENDS SOUVENIR FROM THE FRONT

Gunner Geoffrey Bidlake Found Ornament Off Helmet After Vimy Ridge Battle.

Gunner W. G. Bidlake, who is at the front in Flanders, has forwarded to Mr. John Gaskin, of Cove Dale, a rather handsome brass ornament from the front of a Prussian cap or helmet. The ornament is designed as a Prussian eagle bearing in one claw a sword and in the other a sceptre. The eagle is crowned and the inscription on its wings reads thus: "Mit Gott für König und Vaterland." Over this appears a shield set on a sun and around the shield the motto "Sum Cuique." This souvenir was found by Gunner Bidlake on Vimy Ridge, after the Canadians took possession. The souvenir is being shown in one of the windows of The Transcript office and is attracting much attention.—Moncton Transcript.

PRIESTS RALLY TO THE COLORS

More Have Volunteered for Service in New York Than Necessary.

[New York Herald]

More priests of the Roman Catholic Church in New York city have volunteered for service with American troops than are necessary. That was made known yesterday in a letter from Cardinal Farley to Edward A. Arnold, chairman of the New York Chapter of the Knights of Columbus, which is arranging a programme to look after the welfare of the soldiers in garrison or in the field.

The Cardinal warmly commended the work of the Knights and "most earnestly recommended your appeal to the Catholics of New York." "I sincerely trust," said Cardinal Farley, "that the means will not be wanting to organize a well furnished headquarters for their work in every camp."

TWO WOUNDED IN KNIFE AFFRAY

Boston, July 26.—George Pappas, of 56 Blanche street, Cambridgeport, sustained a severe laceration in the throat and George Cangian, of 30 School St., the same district, a deep cut in his hand during a fracas in which several men engaged, attracting a large crowd to the corner of Austin and Main Sts., Cambridge, early last evening.

Both men were taken in the police ambulance to the Cambridge City Hospital.

Pappas complained to Lieut. Timothy Leahy that he was passing the corner of Austin and Main Sts. when he was suddenly grabbed from behind and said Cangian slashed his throat with a razor. Cangian told the lieutenant that Pappas attacked him with a knife, inflicting his wound. Neither of the men are in a serious condition.

Currant Jelly

The best zest with all red meats

A pretty and economical cake filling

A beautiful garnish for fancy desserts

MAKE plenty of currant jelly. All men like this piquant, sweet. Children never get enough of it. You can use it in many ways by itself or in other dishes. Good home-made jelly is not only an enjoyable relish but a nourishing and valuable food.

A Reliable Recipe for Currant Jelly

Cather the currants as soon as they are red. Do not let them over-ripen. Wash and mash them lightly in the kettle. Heat slowly until the skins look blanched and transparent. Turn the hot fruit into a flannel jelly bag wrung out of warm water and let the juice drip through slowly. It will take several hours. Measure the juice into a clean kettle and boil hard for ten minutes. Do not boil more than six or eight cups at a time. Measure the juice into the oven a cup of LANTIC PURE CANE SUGAR for each cup of juice and add this at the end of the ten minutes. Under the most favorable conditions the jelly will begin to coat the spoon by the time the sugar is all dissolved. Sometimes it will need to be boiled for a few minutes more. You can tell when the jelly is done by trying a spoonful on a cold dry plate.

For all Jellies Use Lantic Pure Cane Sugar

It is pure and reliable and dissolves quickly. At preserving time you will find the larger packages specially convenient.
