THE FOOTPAD'S BLUDGEON.

The Herald last night made a characteristic footpad attack upon Ald. Peregrine, bludgeoning him in a half column of vituperation and abuse.

For some years, the increase of pumping capacity has been aimed at; and recently it has been felt to be a pressing matter.

people. Is it necessary that citizens should be dragged out of bed in cold and stormy mornings to shovel snow when they are willing to pay their share of the cost of having it removed by the city authorities?

There may be a better way. A ratepayer should no more need to shovel snow than he should have to sweep the streets. The snow plough is preferable, we think, to the shovel.

provide that increases should be decided before the estimates were struck, so as to enable the aldermen to make provision for the money necessary, by the rate levied. That, at least, would seem to be reasonable.

Mr. Sifton, the former Minister of the Interior, in his speech in the House last evening, on the alleged timber limit scandals, showed that the present Government had followed the plan adopted by the Tory Government in dealing with these limits, but had been more successful in its application.

OUR EXCHANGES

Risks of City Life. (Toronto News.) The fact that a snow storm reduces the milk supply and advances the price of beef merely serves to emphasize the precariousness of urban existence.

Harry's Storm. (Toronto Star.) Mrs. Thaw is planning to have a country home, the idea being, no doubt, to get some place so secluded that Harry can have an occasional brainstorm without disturbing the neighbors.

A Sign of Good Times. (Toronto Telegram.) A fourteen-inch snowfall on Canada's prairies Tuesday night is the advance agent of plenty in the wheat fields next harvest.

WAS DISFIGURED AND TORMENTED

By Dry, Scaly Eczema on Most of His Body—At Times Fests Seamed on Fire—Rim of Crusts Around Neck—Suffered 3 Years

CURED IN TWO MONTHS BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I first became affected with a dry, scaly humor which was recognized by three leading physicians. It commenced on my legs and arms, and finally covered the greater part of my body. I suffered for about three years. My scalp around the edges of my hair was a complete ring of scales and crusts. The disease was more disfiguring than can be imagined, and heat and perspiration caused my flesh to be as if on fire and I could not keep my hands away from it at times. I was given salves and medicine repeatedly by each physician, and advised to wash frequently in soda and water, but nothing cured me. Then I read of the wonderful Cuticura Remedies and decided I would try them, and I am glad to state openly that by constant use as directed for two months I am entirely cured. I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap, three boxes of Cuticura Ointment, and the same number of bottles of Cuticura Pills. I will gladly tell about Cuticura to those whom I see in need of a skin cure. Maurice L. Greeley, R. F. D. 54, Windsorville, Mo., May 2 and July 12, 1907."

The skin was all discolored and inflamed and she had tried hundreds of things which had been recommended in the papers and by friends, but in vain. Last year I sent for a set of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Pills. She used this complete treatment as per directions and has not been bothered since. LIBERALS HAD GOOD DEBATE

On the Question of Trusts Last Evening.

Affirmative Side Won in An Interesting Contest.

Club Will Organize a Regular Debating Society.

An interesting debate in the regular series was held in the Liberal Club rooms last evening with a fair attendance. The bone of contention was "Resolved that trusts are a menace to a country;" the affirmative being given by Dr. P. Griffin and Mr. S. R. Smith, while the negative was in the hands of Mr. N. E. Zimmerman and Mr. Edmunds.

Mr. Griffin was the first speaker and he presented his side of the argument in an able manner. He stated that trusts were detrimental in every way to a country's good. They forced all small fry to come under their rule or perish in the sea of finance. Prices were boosted as a result and the output of their special line of goods was controlled in a way that helped to put up prices and make big profits by lowering the cost of manufacture.

Mr. Zimmerman, leader of the negative, was next called. Trusts were accused of criminal acts and intentions, he said, but they were not guilty. Because a man at the head of a trust commits criminal acts for private gain it did not affect the trust itself. They were a great good to a country, he maintained, because for one reason they greatly increased the export trade and it was a well-known fact that a country with a large export trade was richer than one with a small export trade.

$100,000 SET FOR HAMILTON

As the Annual Contribution For Mission Work.

Closing Meeting of the Laymen's Campaign Last Night.

Large Crowd and Much Interest In Movement.

That the interest in the laymen's missionary movement is increasing was shown by the large attendance of men in Wesley Church last evening, the unfavorable weather conditions not being sufficient to keep them away. Mr. W. J. Aitchison acted as chairman, and after briefly explaining his opinion of the movement and its purpose, called upon Mr. J. Campbell White, of New York, who delivered a very inspiring address, which supplied fresh energy. In opening he said the thirteenth men he ever saw were some Africans in a small sailboat. They had gone out in their boat, and the wind dropping, they were unable to reach land before their supplies were gone, and it was about noon when the sailboat ran up a signal of distress. When they came nearer they made signs that they were without supplies, and on being given food and water seemed content. This he contrasted with the heathen thirsting for the gospel, with no means of obtaining it. He showed a picture of the India cow, with pictures of the favorite gods, and a man standing with his hands before him, as that was the Hindu form of worshipping. The Hindu, he said, has no reliable standards

HOUSE WAS ON FIRE.

Kincardine, Feb. 6.—During the fierce storm of Sunday night the house of Wallace Perrin, Kincardine township, caught fire, and Mr. and Mrs. Perrin had to walk through the deep snow in their night clothes, carrying with them their eight-months-old daughter wrapped in a blanket. They sought refuge in a neighbor's house.

Have You Correctly Fitted Spectacles

Do not get spectacles from peddlers, stores, etc., or even use some other person's. Many eyes are ruined by doing so. Nearly all require reading glasses before 45 years of age, and the lenses after that age need changing every two or three years. Have your eyes examined by J. W. Gerrie, consulting optician and druggist, 32 James street north, Examination free.
