THE ARMY.

Celebration of Eightieth Anniversary of Gen. Booth.

In celebration of the eightieth birthday of General Booth, an evolution concert was held last night in the Salvation Army Citadel, showing the wonderful development of this organization since its inception. When it first began it met with considerable opposition. The people not understanding what the Army forces aimed at, regarded them as fanatics. The difference in the present day is very striking. The Army now has branches in nearly every part of the globe, and they are looked upon as an earnest and hard working people, who are a boon to any community. All over the world the celebration is being entered into enthusiastically by the Army and its friends.

The General has issued the following message:

After spending eighty years in this world with almost countless opportunities for observing the purposes for which men generally live, and the disappointments they so commonly suffer, it seems reasonable that I should have formed some opinion as to the course they ought to follow if they are to have any real success.

So on this, my eightieth birthday I tell the people of America if they will seek the honor of God, the reign of righteousness, the welfare of the lowly poor, and the riches that endure

THE BOOM.

Greater Hamilton Meeting Called For Wednesday Next.

"Greater Hamilton" is moving nicely. On Wednesday afternoon next, at 4 o'clock, in the Board of Trade rooms, there will be an important meeting. All the committees recently nominated by the Striking Committee have been notified to attend, and the general committee will also be present. The report will be submitted and the appointment confirmed. The movement so far has met with the best possible reception, and its success is assured.

POPULAR ENTERTAINMENT.

Carey Bros. put on two of their most popular entertainments yesterday in the Association Hall, and delighted large audiences with their superbly illustrated songs and two hours of moving pictures full of thrilling incidents, educating and amusing. They will be in Association Hall again this afternoon and evening with a complete change of programme.

MUST GET OUT.

Keeper of Disorderly House Must Leave Canada.

At Police Court this morning Mrs. Nellie Martin was arraigned on the charge of keeping an improper house at 76 Ferguson avenue north. George S. Kerr, K. C., appeared for her, and admitted the offence. He said that his client was willing to sell out, and not start business in this city again. Magistrate Jeffs said that these women never lived up to their agreements, and he had reason to believe that there were two in the city now who agreed to sell out and leave the city, but had not done so. "If she will find two sureties in the sum of $500 each that she will not start up in business again in Canada I'll let her go." The case stands till Monday.

The police aided her place last night. Constables Brown, Duffy, Pettit and Campaign, jun., entering her home and arresting the keeper, and two others. Marion Howard was fined $10 this morning, paid her money and got out. George Moore, John Street north, was arrested as a frequenter. He said he was the gardener, and did odd jobs around the place. He was shocked that the lady who employed him should keep such a house. This obtained for him his liberty.

Ambrose Vincent, a Swede who was remanded on a charge of vagrancy three days ago that he might be given a bath, was discharged. Roy Ross, a sixteen-year-old boy, who went two weeks without a bath, appeared clean and tidy, after his few days in jail. His mother still refuses to admit him to her house, however, and he was remanded for a few days. Truancy Officer Hunter will obtain a position on a farm for him.

Stanley Teft, Grimsby, was arrested for being drunk last night by Constable Cameron and Burch. He told the officers that he had been robbed of $42. Constable Cameron reported the alleged robbery, but in the morning Teft was looking fishy to him. This morning Teft said it was an April Fool joke and that $4 was all he had when he left the dry district.

William Stuart and Edward Jackson, teamsters, were fined $2 each for driving wagons across cement walks on Turner and Aberdeen avenues on Wednesday.

Calvin J. Davis, Grand River, was again arrested for being drunk and disorderly Thursday night, by Constable Pickett. He was allowed out on his own bail and went home as soon as he got out.

AMUSEMENTS

Time was—two decades or more ago—when promenade band concerts were quite popular. One had but to attend a 13th Band concert in the old drill hall to see hundreds and hundreds of citizens of all ranks circling around and around the band stand, while the players discoursed sweet strains, as, of course, they yet continue to do. When it was told on the street corners that band concerts of the popular variety were soon to be resumed in the new armories, there arose a strong plea that the bandmasters permit, again, the promenade, as of yore. The masters, very properly, yielded to the expressed desire, and last evening's combined band concert in the armories was announced as the first at which promenade would be regarded as a definite and distinct favor to the players.

But the promenade floor was there in all its nakedness, there was space, much of it, to cover, yet the promenade was not, not even a percentage of those who mildly clamored for the delight that comes to walkers, listening to sweet strains. When the 13th Band took its place on the platform, most of the 91st bandmen strolled either and either, as an inducement to the timid ones to stroll, but the hundreds who had seated themselves in the spacious galleries kept their seats and the huge floor, save for the band stand, presented an aching void. And yet it may be that at the succeeding concerts promenade may be exceedingly popular.

The temperature of the hall was such as to prevent anyone warning up the occasion, but, nevertheless, the audience was quite generous in its applause, showing how it appreciated the band's playing. The place does not seem well adapted for band work, the immense space overhead producing a rumbling echo, which blurs the playing, especially in the forte and fortissimo parts. This, however, may be remedied by placing the stand close to the south wall.

The programme was a pleasing one. The 12th's best numbers were Sullivan's "In Memoriam" and the selection from Strauss' opera, "The Waltz Dream." The 91st's best contributions were the overture to Schubert's "Rosamunde," and the "Madame Butterfly" selection. G. Woodham, of the 91st Band, played "Killing Time" as a concert solo admirably. Both bands played as ensembles a number of light compositions, and were liberally applauded.

The first of the ten cent concerts will be given by the 13th Band next Thursday evening, when patrons may promenade if they desire.

The recital hall of the Conservatory of Music was well filled on Thursday evening to hear Miss Hamm's pupils give their spring recital. The work of the pupils reflected great credit on their teacher. They were assisted by Miss Anne Sutherland, who sang in her usual charming style. The programme was as follows:

Duet for two pianos—March, Ringnet Jennie Dymont, Jessie Leonard, Ellen Sullivan, Winnie Irving.

The Return March, Reta Price, Amy Kartzmark.

Will of the Wisp, Reta Price, Amy Kartzmark.

MONTREAL COLD.

Montreal, Que., April 10.—After being lulled into the delusion that balmy spring was at hand as the result of the warm weather of the early part of the week, Montrealers suffered cruel deception. After a day of falling snow yesterday, the temperature took a sudden drop last night and a hard frost resulted this morning. The ground was frozen hard and the general aspect was decidedly wintry.

W. H. HEWLETT, Mus. Bac., Organist and conductor of Centenary Choir, which gave its annual concert last evening.

the dramatic possibilities to the very utmost, and combined with his perfect enunciation, it was easily the piece de resistance of the evening.

Preceding the oratorio the following programme was given: Organ, "Lamentation" (Alexander Guilmant); quartets and chorus, "Lamb of God" (J. Haydn), from the "Seven Last Words"; quartets, Miss L. E. H. (Grove), Miss George Allan, C. Victor Heston, Roy McIntosh; aria "He Cometh All Your Sorrow" ("Lobengrin") (Mendelssohn); Mr. J. Redfern (Hollingshead); chorus, "Say, Westminster, What of the Night" (J. Arlano Sullivan); a capella, the choir, "With Verily God" ("Creation") (J. Haydn); Mrs. H. Melan (Dilworth); aria, "Lord, My God" (from the "Seven Last Words") (Th. Dubois); Mr. Arthur Bright; chorus "He Giveth His Beloved Sleep" (Sir Frederick Bridge).

Mr. Hewlett has been most enthusiastic in the promotion of all that is good in music, and he has at no time left a stone unturned toward the development and upliftment of choral singing in this city. He is painstaking in everything which he undertakes, and is therefore successful. He is a genius in the direction of a large body of singers, and is able to get the very best results from his choir at all times. That he may long be spared to continue in his successful career, the hearty wish of every musician in this city.

New York, April 10.—The announcement by the Messrs. Shubert that they have withdrawn from the Theatrical Managers' Association is the first gun of what will undoubtedly be a big theatrical war.

The Shuberts, it is stated, have long been the object of concern to the members of the syndicate, composed of Klaw and Erlanger, Nixon and Zimmerman, Chas. Frohman and Al. Hayman, and a fight against them is said to have been planned.

A new managers' association, which will include David Belasco, Harrison Grey Fisk and the Shuberts, will be formed, it is understood.

The T.M.A. committee has been fortunate in securing Mr. T. Harland Fudge, one of Canada's foremost vocalists, to appear at their second annual benefit at the Grand Opera House on April 16. This is his first appearance in the city of Hamilton, having just returned from the studio of Signor Achille Alberti, of New York, having studied the old Italian method of Bel canto. This added to the orchestra of fifty musicians will be a real musical treat. Mr. T. Harland
