CAPTAIN INSTANTLY KILLED

Captain John Weston, aged 45, of Richibucto, master of the schooner Unity, was instantly killed at Georgetown Wednesday, where the vessel was discharging creosoted timber for the Dominion government. While adjusting a chair on the pile he lost his balance and fell into the hold, fracturing his skull. The coroner's jury gave a verdict of accidental death. The schooner was unfortunate on this trip as a week ago she ran ashore near Souris and only floated with difficulty.

MORAL AND SOCIAL REFORM

The Moral and Social Reform Council of Canada held its annual meeting at Toronto about the middle of September. The prohibition of the sale of liquor on board steamers on the rivers and lakes was strongly urged. More was said about the "Red Light" district in certain towns. The Society is evidently wide awake, and there is need of vigilance wherever the society undertakes to operate. Eternal vigilance is the price that must be paid for safety from the underminings and onslaughts of vicious agencies.
