This Gospel Army struck their tents on arrival of the small-fox, and marched to Summerside.

AND now it is Souris West which boasts the biggest potato; one grown by Mr. Michael Mulhally weighs 3 lbs.

The steamer Marion made her last trip for the season last week, leaving Summerside with 750 lbs. oysters and 600 cases canned fish.

REV. FATHER O'BRIEN, a Homeopriest, died within a few hours of his death; his funeral took place on Monday last.

CAPT. HICKEY, of the firm of Hickey & Stewart, arrived home last Wednesday night from Kentucky after selecting his stock of tobacco leaf.

The Patrol is informed that John McDonald, Esq., of Justice River, the other day thrashed 112 bushels of wheat from five bushels sown last spring.

APPLICATION was made to the Supreme Court yesterday for the release on bail of Robertson, charged with the murder of the boy Fitzpatrick. It was refused.

The steamer Harriet arrived this morning from Montreal. Although there is no sickness on board, she is quarantined in the stream and will not be allowed to come to the wharf.

The Electric Light Company have secured the building owned by the Rank of Nova Scotia, on the corner of Frontal and Water Streets, which they are fitting up to receive their plant, etc.

Some successful Provincials abroad. The Trois son mentions a Mr. Smallman of this Island, who recently married a Miss Minnie Cook of Toronto, as having established a fine reputation in Boston as an organ builder.

A MAY by the name of Patrick Hogan, a shoemaker living on the Esquid Road, between Forbes and Vickerston's, committed suicide by hanging on Monday. It is supposed his mind was affected by the news of the small-fox outbreak.

The house of Mr. John McPherson, of Grand River Road, Lot 53, was burned to the ground last Wednesday. His loss is very serious, as not only did he lose all his furniture but his grain also, which was stored in the building. No insurance.

Every precaution has been taken by the Rector of St. Dunstan's College to prevent the small-fox entering the community under his charge. The day scholars are not allowed to attend, and all communication with the city is suspended. Dr. Omsby visited the College last Friday and vaccinated all the inmates.

THE S. J. Carroll arrived from Boston yesterday evening with the following passengers: Misses Christina Bell, Kate Matheson; Messrs. John O. Pollard, Duncan Matheson, J. Hughes and M. Lansing. She had 2,750 barrels of flour and a quantity of merchandise, making the largest cargo of freight brought to this port during the season.

ANNA McDONALD and John Penny are the names of two Islanders who formed part of the crew of the schooner Handy Andy which recently cleared from Halifax with a cargo of flour and tobacco, ostensibly for St. Pierre, but evidently on a smuggling expedition along the Nova Scotia shore. Some of the cargo has been discovered, but the vessel and crew are still missing.

MISS JANE KEAGAN, of Augusta, Me., and C. E. Frank of Gardiner, Me., took from the Island last week eighty-nine choice horses, value about $9,000, which they had purchased for the United States market—forty-one belonged to Mr. Keagan and the remainder to Mr. Frank. These gentlemen do an immense business here, and are ever-welcome visitors, as their transactions with our people have always been satisfactory.

THE Rock Band gave a Concert in the Market Hall last Friday night. The audience, owing to the small-fox excitement, was very small, notwithstanding which the programme was carried out in its integrity and almost duplicated from the numbers formerly being given as order from the Board of Health, forbidding further assemblages in the Market Hall, they cancelled the rest of their engagements and went to Summerside on Saturday.

Tax Worcester, arrived from Boston last Thursday morning with freight and the following passengers: Misses Lucy McCurdy, Mary E. Hurry, Josie Anderson, Kaitie McAvoin, Maudie J. McDonald (Customs) Alex. McLean, John Nickerson, John Bertram, Henry Allan. She sailed again on Friday morning with a full cargo and following passengers: Miss Rose Murray, Messrs. Robert Troy, T. Burns, David Butcher, John Moray, A. Gamble.

THE Society of the Sacred Heart of Jesus has recently been established in St. Dunstan's College. The Rev. A. Macdonnell, S. J., in his zeal for religion visited the institution on Wednesday last, and enrolled the students in the admirable society. In the course of a loud and edifying instruction, the Rev. Father presented to their minds the sublime and exalted character of the devotion. He pointed out many of the innumerable advantages, both spiritual and temporal, resulting from the exercise of piety practised by the members of such an association. He showed clearly that it affords relief for all the ills which beset mankind. He also instructed the students in the duties which the Society entails upon them. The ceremony was concluded by Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. The College choir, under the direction of the Rev. E. Y. F. O'Neill, rendered some beautiful pieces of sacred music suitable to the occasion.
